For the past two and one-half years, Mr. Mance served on the State Administrative staff, during which time many Negro youths have been given job opportunities and job training experiences. At present approximately 60 per cent of the youth working on N. Y. A. projects in Marion County are Negroes, he added.
Attorney Mance received his collegiate training at Howard university in Washington, D. C., from which he received his bachelor of arts degree in June, 1931. He entered the Harvard University Law School in Cambridge, Mass., and received the LL.B. degree from that school in June, 1934. Since that time, Mr. Mance has practiced law in Indianapolis. He is a member of the law firm of Mance and Hall, with offices at 308 in the Walker Building.

WHITE WOMAN CHARGES BOY, 12, RAPED HER

HOUSTON, Texas, May 13. (By Elaine Ellis for CNA)—A 26-year-old white woman has seriously charged that a frail 12-year-old Negro boy assaulted and "raped" her. This isn't funny. The child, Abner Windom, has been officially charged with "rape" in the juvenile court here, and Southern justice being what it is, may be forced to spend his youth in a reformatory.
Yet little Abner may be lucky at that. In Texas, especially in this lynch region of Houston, even children have fallen victims to the furious hatred of the lynchers. Less than three years ago, two Negro boys, Ernest Collins and Benny Mitchell, were brutally put to death between Houston and Columbus. Ernest was only 15 and Benny only 16 years of age. They were arrested and charged with assault and murder simply because they had been seen picking pecans near a creek where the body of a white girl was found.

450 Pound Woman Carries Weight, Fine Suspended

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 13.—450 pounds and previous good record brought a suspended fine and sentence to Mrs. Emma McAdoo, 408 Olive street, here this week. She was arrested Sunday night for violation of the liquor law by an excise officer who surveyed her ample girth, tried vainly to picture how he would get her into his small car and ended by deciding it was not worth the effort. In court, the judge scanned her size, considered her past good record and suspended a $100 fine and thirty-day jail sentence.

CHAP WHO KNEW HELPS 3 BOYS

On Indiana avenue late Monday evening, three boys whose personal appearance indicated that they did not know what a change of clothing meant, stood in front of a barber shop. They looked in for a few minutes, as one barber worked on the head of a customer, then sauntered slowly inside with a short stubby electrical instrument in the hands of one of the boys. It was an electric massager that sells for less than a dollar. They asked the barber if he wanted to buy it for a dollar and he was a prospective purchaser until another gentleman who seemed to know his way around, butted in without being asked.
He explained to the barber that the instrument might have been stolen, told him the penalty for contributing to delinquency and receiving stolen goods and advised him not to make the purchase. The young men in question resented the stranger's action and told him so in loud tones until he flashed a deputy sheriff's badge.
On further questioning from the deputy, it was discovered that the boys had stolen the machine from a drugstore Friday and had been trying to tell it ever since. They ranged in ages from twelve to fourteen years old, and told a story of how they had seen a picture advertised at a movie house and wanted twenty-five cents each to attend the movie. The sympathetic touch with which the deputy handled his homespun philosophy invoked a question from one of the boys, who said, "You must have been in trouble yourself once," and the stranger replied that he had just been released from a charge of robbery.
He gave the three boys the choice of returning the merchandise or going to jail. They returned the vibrator to the drugstore. The attendant, Mr. Courtney, said that these same boys had stolen from him before but he could never catch them. He did not want them arrested, however, but required them to promise not to steal any more, which they did.
As an added favor, the stranger met them Tuesday at 4 p. m. and took them to the movie that they wanted to see bad enough to serve a term in prison. The names of the three youths, who were headed down the wrong trail, were not obtained but the man who performed the deed of social restoration was none other than Vernon L. Anderson, former criminal investigator of the Marion County Prosecutor's office.

DEATH CLOSES SHOOTING CASE

Death, always an unwelcome visitor, has closed a case that was scheduled to come up in criminal court this week.
On the night of February 20, 1937, Edmund Johnson, who lived at 1037 Columbia avenue, was arrested and slated for assault and battery with intent to kill when he allegedly shot Brack Carter, 1727 Yandess street, during an argument. Johnson was released on bond and the case filed to appear in court.
Early this week, Lieut. Leo Troutman, head of the Homicide Bureau, was gathering information on the case for evidence, but when he checked on Johnson's whereabouts discovered that Johnson died about two months ago and was buried from the King and King Funeral Home; Carter has recovered from his gunshot wounds if was reported.

SOLO BURGLAR GOT NO LOOT, GIVEN 2 YEARS

In passing judgment on a confessed burglar, Judge Frank P. Baker, of Criminal Court, said that the man in some ways reminded the judge of himself. Frank Thurman, 30 years old, living at 815 Peca street, admitted that he entered a building in the 1000 block Fayette street alone but had nothing in his possession when police caught him in the place.
When Judge Baker learned from Thurman that he had entered places before without any financial success, he stated: "Thurman, you are sorta like me, when I go fishing I go alone but never catch any thing."
Thurman was sentenced to two years to be served in the Indiana State prison.

Parents Resigned As Couple Mate In Mixed Marriage

F-L-A-S-H!!
Julian D. Steele and Miss Mary B. Dawes, relative of the former vice president, Charles G. Dawes, were secretly married in New York City last Friday, their attorney disclosed.
BOSTON, Mass., May 13.—(ANP)—In order to be free to follow the dictates of her heart and marry the man of her choice, Miss Mary B. Dawes, 27-year old socialite, has resigned her teaching position at a girl's finishing school and arranging details of her planned marriage to Julian D. Steele, former head worker at Robert Gould Shaw House, Roxbury.
Officials of the girls school in Providence are said to have offered to retain her the balance of the school term and defend her in her marriage but she rejected the offer and returned to her apartment in Cambridge. She was quoted as saying she believed her future was assured as the wife of the colored social worker.
On his part, Steele takes the position that his marriage to Miss Dawes is a purely personal affair and he deplores the publicity given it by the press of the nation. He says he will continue his warfare work among his people and still fight all forms of discrimination and segregation.
Because of the prominence of both Steels and Miss Dawes, coupled with the fact Massachusetts has no state law forbidding interracial marriages, the betrothal has attracted wide notice. As a result of the romance, Miss Dawes has been estranged from her family who tried determinedly to break the attachment, but without avail. The parents are reported heart broken at her irrevocable decision to go ahead with her plans. Her father was reported Thursday as saying:
"When her mother and I learned that she was keeping company with Steele we did all we could to break up their association. We talked with her and tried to make her realize that a union would be impossible. Finally, when our pleadings fell on deaf ears, we sent her abroad to study."
"Now we feel that we have done everything that we could do and apparently it has done no good. Her mother and I feel that she now is old enough to realize full well what she is doing. In view of that we have decided not to comment at all, as it would do no good whatever. There's nothing more that we can do."

Baptists Close

Successful District Meet

Drawing resolutions against gambling, operators of gambling devices and circus performances on Sunday, the Central District association closed what has been called a "most wonderful session" at Emmanuel Baptist church with a communion service last Friday. Rev. A. Butts was host pastor. Rev. J. T. Highbaugh is moderator. A resume of the highlights follows:
On Monday, the Junior Missionary enjoyed an inspirational meeting; Tuesday, the B.Y.P.U. session was largely attended; Wednesday, the Sunday school convention was full of inspiration; Thursday, Women's Home and Foreign Missionary convention; Friday, the District association with Moderator Rev. J. T. Highbaugh in charge. Rev. Crittenden of Richmond and Rev. G. W. Gore were out-of-town guests. Finance raised during the week was $510.20.

"In as much as the Negro population is generally in the low income group of the city, and where the gambling device operators prey upon this group; we therefore resolve to pledge against such practices. Also our cooperation with the Ministerial association and the Church Federation in their drive against them.

"Whereas a christian group working together for the propagation of the gospel and to sustain the principles, practices and the teachings of Jesus Christ; therefore be it resolved that we, the central District association, oppose the holding of any circus performances on any Sunday, be it not confined to any special Sunday."
The committee was composed of Addie Sneed, New Bethel, chairman; Frances Elzy, New Bethel, secretary; Reverends Bernard Walton, Noel Evans, Poole, McLawler, Walters, Thomas and Ford.

Formed Without Regard to 60,000 Local Race Citizens

"THE PUBLIC WELFARE GROUP FORGOT THE NEGRO WHEN IT WAS BEING SET UP," John Linder, county attorney, hurled to a group of colored citizens during a meeting for action upon recommendations made by interested persons relative to conditions at the Marion County Colored Orphans' home in Judge John F. Geckler's chambers Thursday afternoon.
Made in reply as to why colored orphans were not placed under the care and administration of the Public Welfare board, the statement dropped like a bombshell among the startled gathering.
Mrs. Myrtle Roper, former Flanner House attaché, proved to be the firebrand of the meeting, and insisted upon knowing why competent workers, better conditions and more money were denied the institution and why all offers of the Public welfare department were flatly and coldly rejected. She appeared outraged that it would be suggested that private citizens raise funds to meet the needs changes and help, when the institution involved is a public one and is supported in some measure by the taxpayers.

Rev. David C. Venerable flayed the system which allows parents to shove their children upon the county, thereby increasing the load and squeezing out other qualified children, scored the whippersnappers and urged citizens to work very closely with the commissioners.
Boys and girls at the Home are taught to do nothing, Mr. Harrison, long-time eastside resident and president of an eastside civic club deplored. Nothing is done to make them fine American citizens, he said. Mr. Harrison also charged officials at the Home were little concerned about the coming and goings of the children, alleging that Mrs. Susie Milliken, superintendent, said: "We don't worry ourselves when they go away, when they get hungry they'll come back."

BOTH BATTLERS SURE OF 'GRUDGE MATCH' VICTORY

The fight between Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, of Detroit, and Max Schmeling, of Germany, for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world was nearer reality today than ever with the announcement that the Brown Bomber and the Black Uhlán went before the New York State Athletic Commission, Wednesday, signed commission contracts and posted $5,000 forfeits, each, for their title matched scheduled to be held at the giant Yankee Stadium June 22.
Already both men are making physical preparations. Louis left last night en route to Lafayetteville, N. Y., for a few weeks of preliminary roughing before he opens final training headquarters at Pompton Lakes, N. J., on May 26.
Schmeling will leave this Saturday and start training at Speculator, N. Y. He is the only man to ever knockout Louis since the Bomber turned professional and promises to be the first heavy-weight to ever regain the title.
Louis who claims that Schmeling whipped him during one of his "off" nights and cannot do it again. Both fighters expressed feelings of confidence in their veing victorious.
Louis even went so far as to say, when questioned by reporters, that the judges could stay at home the

Public Invited To Flanner House Exhibit, 20th Annual Open House

Over 600 invitations have been sent out inviting the general public to attend the 20th Annual Open House and Exhibit of Flanner House, Friday, May 13, from 3 p. m. to 10 p. m. The occasion is one of the HIGH-LIGHTS of the Institution's Annual Programs. In the afternoon there will be a special prepared Children's Pageant at 4 o'clock and the evening program which marks the closing of our vocational schools is from 7:30 until 9 o'clock. During this time the work that has been carried on in the various departments and clubs will be on exhibit and the public is invited to inspect in detail the services rendered in the community by this worthwhile institution.
One of the outstanding features of the Institution is the Toy Library which operates just like a Book Library only for the purpose of providing Play opportunities and facilities to Indianapolis children who cannot afford to own toys and play equipment. Through our shop under the direction of a competent staff person, under whose direction broken toys are prepared and new toys are made for the purpose of the library. At present we have 2000 toys which are being loaned to over 200 children representing many of the "neediest" of the "needy" families in our community.
In the vocational department there are classes in cooking sewing, home-making, and laundry, in which girls are taught the use for vocations, and are placed through our Employment Department. Last year this department placed over 6000 persons. At the evening program 47 people will receive certificates in their various lines of study. There are over 250 persons enrolled in our vocational classes. The principal address will be delivered by the Rev. R. C. Henderson of Bethel A. M. E. church. Music will be furnished by the various Flanner House musical groups. The entire Institution will be inspected by guest preceding and following our program. Those who are to receive certificates at this exercise are as follows:

Dress, who has asked the park board to take favorable action, revealed this week. The plot would be used as a park and playground. CCC camp buildings now abandoned will be removed this month and thus allow work on the park to begin. Playground equipment for the use of colored children now in Mesker park will be moved to the new site, it was disclosed, and a shelter house, ovens and other playground equipment will be included.

CALVERT DISTILLER CORP. NAMES RACE REPRESENTATIVE

Calvert Distillers Corporation, distillers of Calvert's "Reserve," "Special," and "Old Drum" whiskeys, in appreciation of the fine Negro patronage which it receives, announces with pleasure the appointment of Enil F. Simpson in an important executive position. Mr. Simpson has been affiliated with the Negro press for sixteen years and was formerly manager of the Chicago Defender, Metropolitan News of Chicago, and the New Amsterdam News. Recently he was director of Negro sales of Wallach's, Inc., Harlem's 125th St. store. In the latter establishment he started as sales promotion manager and was later promoted to assistant manager of the store. This we understand established a precedent in New York City as well as throughout the country.

ENIL F. SIMPSON

The appointment of Mr. Simpson should be looked upon with favor by members of the Negro race who are interested in the progress of its members in positions of an executive nature. Mr. Simpson is well qualified by actual experience and training to carry on the duties of his new position with dignity and reserve and hopes to demonstrate to others of his race and his new employers his ability to merchandise and market to a group whose spending power is in excess of two billion dollars annually, representing one-tenth of the population of the United States.

Mr. Simpson's duties will be to direct promotion of sales in this group, to make surveys and recommendations, and to see that at all times those of his race are shown the same consideration which is shown to others.

Ira P. Haymaker Elected Democratic County Chairman

"I intend to be fair to everyone, regardless of race, creed or color. Each application will be carefully considered." That is the reply of the man, Ira P. Haymaker, whom the Democrats last Saturday elected county chairman, and the statement was made in answer to a question concerning his attitude toward the issuance of jobs.

A resident of Indianapolis forty-three years, Mr. Haymaker served on the board of safety during 1928 and 1929. His splendid record, following his election to the office of county recorder in 1930, brought fitting reelection in 1934 and, today, in that same office his record has increased proportionately with the years.

Friendly, widely known and loved by hundreds of colored people, his attitude toward this group of his loyal supporters and admirers may be gathered from a previous interview in which he stated concerning an employee who has been a hard-working intelligent member of his office force since his first term:

"Mrs. Louise Hampton Makel, who is employed in my office, is efficient and I can frankly say that it is a pleasure for the entire force and myself to come in daily contact with her."

"If all employees of public offices would conduct themselves as Mrs. Makel does in the interest of the public they would never have any reason for complaint."

Mr. Haymaker has been in the real estate business about twenty-five years and his election to the county chairman post is held to be a masterful Democratic stroke. Mr. Haymaker is married.

The present church into a more adequate home for the north side congregation. Rev. Skelton is beginning his tenth year as pastor of this congregation. Sunday after Sunday the auditorium of this church fails to meet the demands of the day. With one of the largest Sunday schools in the city the church must be made larger to take care of its activities.

A committee was appointed last Wednesday night known as the Building Committee composed of James Anderson, Louis Cooper, Vera Greer, Lula Bean, and Mark Jones. Fifty captains were appointed to make a survey of the membership and to secure definite pledges to be paid weekly.

The pastor will preach this coming Sunday at the morning hour using for a morning subject, "Have you considered my servant Job?" Mrs. Lucille Williamson will be the morning soloist.

HARPOLE AUX. WILL OBSERVE POPPY DAY HERE

Preparation for the observance of Poppy Day, Saturday, May 23, are being completed by Tillman H. Harpole No. 249 unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Lena Hollins, unit president, announced today. Arrangements are being directed by Mrs. Salome Anderson, chairman of the Poppy Day committee, assisted by a large corps of workers from the unit. Plans are being developed to distribute memorial poppies in every part of the city.

Honor the World War dead and aid the war's living victims is the meaning of the memorial poppy.

The little red flower takes added significance from the fact that it is made by the war disabled and that it contributes to the welfare of the disabled men and dependent families of veterans. Everyone who wears a poppy on Poppy Day not only is showing remembrance and honor for the men who died in the war, but is giving help to those who still are bearing the burdens of the war in suffering, privation and lost opportunities. All contributions made for the flower will go to support the rehabilitation and welfare work of the legion and auxiliary which means so much to the disabled veterans and the families of the dead and disabled.

The women of the auxiliary of the Tillman H. Harpole Post are making great efforts for a successful Poppy Day this year and are hoping that everyone in Indianapolis will catch the spirit of the day and will join with them in honoring the dead and aiding the disabled.

Anna Scott is publicity chairman.

With the theme "Piloting hundreds of Thousands to Economic Security", National Negro Insurance Week is being observed here May 9-14, with the Mammoth Life and Accident, the Gibraltar Industrial Life, Rex Health and Accident, Kentucky Central Life and Accident, Empire Life and Accident and United Insurance companies conducting an intensive campaign to educate the public to the many uses and kinds of insurance available.

Declaring that the aims of insurance not only is to provide medical aid during illness but to provide social security for old age, attention is drawn to the fact that children can be educated and protection for the family and dependents be assured also.

Thousands of persons are finding new avenues of employment in the insurance field and as rapidly as growth warrants such action more and more young persons, fresh from schools or those eager for work with a future, are given jobs. The employment scale is made possible by the same policy which gives protection, affords opportunities for education or gives funds for medical aid during times of need.

The Mammoth and Gibraltar Companies employ scores of colored persons here, as well as in other cities, and have contributed effectively to the general social pattern. Their intention is to place a policy in the home of every colored family and all Indianapolis should give the Mammoth and Gibraltar representatives a hearing.

April Children

Celebrate at Noblesville

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., May 13.—The home of Mrs. A. F. Winburn Jr. 8, Sixth street was the scene of one of the most colorful events of the season. The house was beautifully decorated with white and gold streamers, and spring flowers formed a garden background. The streamers were so arranged in the dining room, forming a canopy over the table and gold stars shining through made a fit setting for the birthday dinner. A large three-tiered white cake, decorated in gold candles completed the table decorations.

The occasion was the third anniversary party and dinner for a group of friends who enjoy the month of April as their birth month. They were, Mesdames Nancy Roberts, Sallie Bush, Nellie Tyler, Maggie Crowther, the hostess, Fred Tyler and Miss Beulah Stone. Invited guests included Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, Rev. Barney Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Woods, and son, William; Mrs. Lydia Steward, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Avery, Mrs. Ida B. Roberts, Arthur Bush, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Miss Jennie Whitman, Mrs. Bedia Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Artis, Mrs. Kate Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Broda White and son, Doyle; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. O'Neill and daughter, Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howard and family, Mrs. Leona Halsey, Miss Revel Roberts, and Alva Winburn of Noblesville. Out-of-town guests included, Mr. and Mrs. William Hodelburg, Indianapolis, Mrs. Eva White and daughter, Nora Fay of Mosseson, Pennsylvania and Miss Helen Warfield of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

A pitch-in dinner was served and the birthday cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Berda White, daughter of the hostess. After dinner was served, a program was rendered, consisting of Mother's Day readings and selections, tributes to mothers, invocations, and come address and response with Miss Beulah Stone, John Thomas, Mable Artis, Arthur Bush, Beatrice O'Neill, Rev. W. H. Adams, as participants. A number of songs were sung after which, the members of the April party withdrew to the rear of the room, and the Senior members of the party, Rev. Barney Stone, Mrs. Nancy Roberts and Mrs. Doria Freeman, were seated on a large divan in the center of the room, while the April members laden with flowers came and stood in front of them.

After a beautiful presentation speech by Mrs. Winburn, each guest was completely covered with flowers, keeping the adage, "Give Them Flowers while they are Living." The effect was beyond expression. Rev. Stone then arose and gave a fitting response. The invited guests sang "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown" led by Mrs. Effie Woods, the closing hymn was, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and a benediction was pronounced. "Let Us Cheer the Weary Traveler" was sung by Mrs. Kate Halsey.

Rev. Barney Stone has the distinction of being an ex-slave, a Civil War Veteran and is enjoying his 91st birthday; Mrs. Nancy Roberts has the honor of being the

Stop, Look, Listen
 If one habitually ignores the familiar "stop, look, listen" sign at railroad crossings he will sooner or later come to grief. Likewise, when one pays no attention to symptoms of eyestrain, such as inflamed eyelids, itches, bloodshot eyeballs, smarting or burning or actual pain in the eyes, he may expect to have serious trouble with his eyesight. Strained eyesight often results in loss of vision and sometimes in total loss of sight. Give your eyes the care that they deserve. Have them examined regularly by a competent oculist.

Vote As You Please, Says Harry Hopkins

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Harry L. Hopkins, Work Progress Administrator, wrote a letter last week which will be received by every WPA worker when he collects his pay check emphasizing the absolute political freedom of every person on the rolls of this agency.

"No one will lose his job because of his vote in any election or his failure to contribute to any campaign funds," Administrator Hopkins wrote, underlining these words. "This has always been an absolute rule of WPA," he added, "and it is my responsibility and yours to let me know if anybody tries to tell you anything different."

Sufficient copies of the letter have been ordered so that each of the nearly 2,600,000 project workers and the supervisory and administrative employees will receive this message with the next payroll check distributed by the Treasury State Disbursing Office.

The text of the letter follows: "It has been my desire that everyone connected with the Works Progress Administration should know and understand the rules under which we work. This is especially true of any question involving personal rights."

"For this reason, I want to repeat once more our rules about elections so that there can be absolutely no misunderstanding. Every person who works for the Works Progress Administration whatever his job, has the right to vote in any election for any candidate he chooses. Moreover, no WPA worker is required to contribute to any political party or any campaign fund in order to hold his job. No supervisor or administrative person may attempt to influence the vote of any worker or solicit contributions to campaign funds from the people who work under him. Anyone who uses his position with the WPA in any way to influence the votes of others by threat or intimidation will be dismissed."

"No one will lose his WPA job because of his vote in any election or his failure to contribute to any campaign fund. This always has been an absolute rule of the WPA, and it is my responsibility and yours to let me know if anybody tries to tell you anything different."

"This is a big program and we are all responsible for seeing that it works. I think the country knows and appreciates the work which has been done. Obviously, only by continuing to do a good job for the public can we expect continued public approval. Personally, I am proud of the fine things which WPA workers all over the country have built and done. New wealth has been created and the life of the country has been enriched. Your personal opinions and your politics are nobody's business but your own."

In a supplementary letter to all State WPA Administrators, advising them of plans to bring this message to the attention of every worker, Administrator Hopkins wrote:

"Arrangements have been made to print a sufficient number of copies of the attached communication for distribution to every WPA project worker, as well as to all supervisory and administrative employees."

"Arrangements have been made whereby Treasury State Disbursing offices will distribute a copy of this letter with each payroll check."

"Printed copies of the attached letter will be sent direct to the Treasury State Disbursing Office. You will please assist the Treasury State Disbursing office in any way that is necessary in order to expedite distribution of copies of the letter with the next payroll check to each worker."

"The communication to all WPA workers is intended to emphasize the established regulations of the Works Progress Administration as set forth in the Handbook of Procedures and in General Letters. General Letter No. 8, dated March 13, 1936, remains in effect and you are again directed to post a copy of this letter in each local office and one each work project."

Lump Payment To Persons, Heirs In Social Security

CHICAGO, Ill., May 13.—Claims for lump sum benefit payments now becoming due under the social security act are being approved at the rate of 80 a day in Region VI, which includes the States of Illinois, Indiana, and Wisconsin.

This statement was made today at the Chicago headquarters of the region by H. L. McCarthy, regional director. Mr. McCarthy also reported that in the nation as a whole 740 such claims were approved daily during the first 20 days in April. Following approval, payments are made through checks drawn on the U. S. treasury.

In Region VI residents of Illinois are having their claims for lump sum benefit payments approved at the rate of 43 a day. Mr. McCarthy said, in Indiana, 21 claims are being approved daily, while in Wisconsin the average is 16 claims daily.

There has been marked gain in the average amount paid to claimants of lump sum benefits. Mr. McCarthy said. Averages for the three states in March of this year, the last month for which full data is available, and for December, 1937, were as follows:

State	December	March
Illinois	$28.42	$40.85
Indiana	24.06	37.53
Wisconsin	29.88	39.86

These benefits are now payable to persons who have attained the age of 65 years after working in occupations covered by the social security act. They are also being paid to heirs of persons who have died after having been employed in such fields. Each of the 31 field offices of the social security board in Region VI is prepared to file claims for these payments, the regional director said.

Challenges Church

BISHOP JAMES A. BRAY OF CHICAGO

who delivered the Episcopal Address to the Colored Methodist Episcopal church at its quadrennial Session in Hot Springs. The message, the official pronouncement of the denomination on affairs of the day, as they affect the life of the race, demanded justice in the distribution of government funds and relief, urged fairer distribution of employment, blasted lynching and endorsed efforts to secure fairer treatment in the U. S. Army and Navy.

The report scored the inequality of educational opportunities in the South, especially the distribution of government funds, urged a continuance of relationships with the M. E. Church, South, and advised against the election of more bishops at this time, declaring them an unnecessary expense. The church was challenged to do its

HARLEM OPENS BIG DRIVE FOR CONGRESSMAN

NEW YORK, May 13.—The opening gun in Harlem's campaign to elect a Negro to Congress was heard here this week when representatives from a number of political groups met at a mass meeting at the St. Mark's M. E. church to map out a plan of work for the coming months.

Under the chairmanship of Rev. Dr. Lorenzo King, the assembly heard speakers decry the absence of a Negro representative from Harlem in the National Legislative body, and called for united action to remedy the situation.

An attempt by Representative Hamilton Fish to divert the meeting from its original purpose into an attack on the President's recovery program and on the Communist Party was sharply assailed by Miss Audley Moore, Harlem woman leader, who pointed out that the present administration has done more for the Negro people than all the Republican administrations put together since Lincoln. Miss Moore asserted that the President's recovery program would result in further aid to the Negro people.

Taking issue with the gratuitous advice of Representative Fish that Negroes should not fight side by side with the white workers for their common interest, Miss Moore declared: "The Negro people don't suffer from an 'inferiority complex.' They have been fighters all the time."

Sponsors of the meeting declared their intention of prosecuting a vigorous campaign to elect a Negro to Congress from Harlem.

Excellent Response On Tire Safety Week

Miller Distributor Reports Motorists Join in Campaign to Reduce Motoring Hazards

"National Tire Safety Week, staged as a cooperative national wide effort of tire manufacturers and their dealers is meeting excellent response in Indianapolis, it was declared here today by Art Rose, President of the Rose Tire Company, local distributor of Miller tires, located at 930 N. Meridian street.

"We have been able to stimulate unusual interest in this community for this national campaign to reduce highway hazards due to old, smooth-faced tires," Mr. Rose says. "Motorists here have not only been interested in the safety angle presented by the campaign, but also in the trade-in allowances for their old tires being offered in connection with this special tire week."

"Public officials who have to deal with the traffic problem every day in this locality have given their support to the effort to make every one realize the dangers inherent in poor automobile tires."

"The manufacturers of Miller tires are enthusiastically helping in the drive. They have been for many years one of the leading exponents of safety on the highways, as shown by their recent development of new tires designed especially for safe operation under modern motoring conditions."

"The first Miller tire was built over 30 years ago.

"Since that time Miller has been a real leader in pioneering new safety developments and in building better tires year after year. The first non-skid tread with center running strip for high pressure tires—curving tread and sidewall at the same time—developing a durable tire with fewer plies—the one-piece tread and sidewall. These are just a few of Miller's major contributions to tire safety."

"Now in 1938 Miller has announced a fine new tire with the famous 'Geared-to-the-road' tread.

NEW YORK HAS FIRST COLORED WOMAN JUROR

NEW YORK, May 13. (CNA)—A decided advance in the struggle for equal rights was registered here this week when Mrs. Virginia G. Pope, a Negro housewife, was chosen as a juror in the Court of General Sessions.

Mrs. Pope, a graduate of Atlanta University with the degrees of B. A. and M. A., and a former history department dean of a woman's college at Concord, North Carolina was among three women picked in Judge Owen W. Bohan's court to try a grand larceny case. The other two are white.

Court attaches said that it was the first time in the history of the 225-year old court that a Negro woman was ever selected as a juror.

Mrs. Pope will pass judgment in the trial of Joseph Greshna, who has been indicted for the theft of $9,500 in jewelry, silverware, and linen from his employer, Louis Baumgold, a jeweler residing at 55 Central Park, West.

G. B.—My husband is awfully abusive at times and has a disposition that I can't understand which causes me to worry myself almost crazy. Should I continue to stay with him or should I give up and look for the future some place else?

Ans.: The boy you have in Chicago just can't spare any money right at present for he is not as well off as your other son, who lives in Philadelphia. I might add, however, that he never will be as good to his folks as his other brother for he's not the "big-hearted" type.

M. J. P.—While at a dance, I met a gentleman whom I took a great interest in. I would like to know if I will ever mean anything to each other? If so, just how will I go about it?

Ans.: You will never be this boy's intimate friend. You didn't make the hit with him that he made with you ... for he has already forgotten about you.

M. B.—How is it that my husband's people doubt me? They always think I am wrong.

Ans.: Your husband's people are the kind that "click together." They feel that blood is thicker than water and being rather narrow-minded they do not put much confidence in anything you do or say. Don't take them seriously for they mean you no harm.

D. H. V.—Dear Mr. Wallace: "I am asking you if you are married or single? I saw your picture in the paper and I have fallen in love with you. I want me a good husband to care for me and come and live with me. I love you from your dear picture (smile). Mr. Wallace, this is true as God in heaven."

Ans.: My dear girl ... I want you to know that I am highly flattered by the compliment you have paid me, but it so happens that I already have a wife and baby and we live very happily. Don't let this news disappoint you too much for a young man will come into your life this summer who will bring the true happiness in your life that you so crave.

D. R. J.—I am a soldier, and have been for some time and the fact is I want to know if you think I shall keep on in the army? I want to get married, but don't like to as long as I am a soldier, or do you think it all right to do so?

Ans.: I think you would be making a mistake if you dropped out of the service now. You are highly respected in your present capacity and you have a promising future ahead. As for marrying ... it would be a good idea if the right girl were to come along ... but don't marry just for convenience sake.

H. H.—Why is it that my son, in Chicago, doesn't ever do anything to help his mother and father?

Beauty Hints

It is not every woman who knows how to use cream. Usually she drinks it and thinks that its richness will make her body sleek and beautiful. No so. It only makes you fat when taken internally. The wise woman massages her cream over the skin on the outside of the body. This feeds the tissues, makes the skin pliant, removed wrinkles and preserves youth. Use your cream this way if you would retain your youth and beauty.

Beauty Hints (By NINA TEMPLE)

TIGHTENING THE WHOLE BODY As age creeps on, the skin all over the body becomes flaccid and hangs loosely from the bones. Notice aging dancers who expose thighs and you will see how the flesh quivers and shakes. To prevent this fault, begin early to massage the limbs with an astringent. Rhodocologne is good and also witch hazel. After using one of these rub down with ice or take a quick cold shower. This treatment acts like a tonic on the flesh firming it to a marble-like appearance.

Mrs. Harriet Kelly in S. State, teacher of the Women's Bible Searchers Class at the Y.W.C.A. taught a very inspiring lesson on the subject, "Mothers of Yesterday, Today, and the Future." One of the members of the class enjoyed Mrs. Kelly's teaching so much that she asked to have it mentioned in our column.

Most beauty columns, I find, are more concerned with telling the over-weight how to reduce than they are in solving the problem of her too slender sister. And in most cases it is much more difficult for the chronically under-weight girl to gain than it is for the heavy girl to reduce. Losing weight, unless there is something organically wrong, is purely a matter of exercise, diet, and that all important ingredient—will power. Gaining weight is more complicated. The girl who is underweight should first of all get plenty of rest. While eight hours out of twenty-four is ample sleep for the average, she should try to get ten, and add to that an afternoon nap if possible. It is not absolutely necessary that she sleep in the afternoon as long as she lies down and rests her mind and body. Sleep is a great builder of health and beauty. Lack of it makes us listless, dull and haggard, and that all important ingredient—will power. Gaining weight is more complicated. The girl who is underweight should first of all get plenty of rest. FRIENDLY POLE LEFT FUND FOR RACE TRAINING

(By CNA)

One of the earliest bonds of sympathy between two great persecuted groups in this country, the Negro people and the foreign-born whites, was forged 140 years ago in the will of Thaddeus Kosciuszko, Polish humanitarian who volunteered in General George Washington's army in 1776 and became a great fighter for American democcracy. In his will Kosciuszko which spelling, incidentally is wrong, according to the way the name appears in the will, directed that his property in the United States be used to aid victims of chattel slavery.

"Kosciuszko was essentially a democrat, but a democrat of the school of Jefferson and Lafayette," wrote Robert Nisbet Bain, assistant librarian of the British Museum from 1883 to his death in 1909. He was a biographer of the great Pole. Kosciuszko "maintained that the republic could be created only on the basis of absolute liberty and equality before the law," which fact led Bain to observe that the Polish leader of democracy "was far in advance of his age."

It was exactly 140 years ago last Thursday (May 5) that Kosciuszko, on the eve of his second farewell to the United States, wrote and signed a will turning his property in this country into a fund for freeing and educating Negroes. Addressed to Thomas Jefferson, at that time too feeble because of advanced age to execute the will, the historic document reads:

"I, Thaddeus Kosciuszko, being just on my departure from America, do hereby declare and direct that, should I make no other testamentary disposition of my property in the United States: I hereby authorize my friend, Thomas Jefferson, to employ the whole thereof in purchasing Negroes from among his or any others, and giving them an education, in trades or otherwise and in having them instructed, for their new condition, in the duties of morality which may make them good neighbors, good fathers or mothers, husbands and wives, and in their duties as citizens, teaching them to be defenders of their liberty and country, and of the good order society, and in whatever may make them happy and useful, and I make the said Thomas Jefferson my executor of this.

OLIVER STARR, G. O. P. GARYITE, IN SENATE RACE

GARY, Ind., May 12. (Special)—Oliver Starr, former prosecutor and former chairman of the Lake county republican central committee, today announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for United States senator from Indiana. Mr. Starr has been active as a practicing attorney in Gary since his graduation from Indiana University and the University of Michigan thirty years ago.

Mr. Starr was born on a farm

in Wells county 54 years ago. He worked as a farm hand and taught country school until 21 years of age. Personally experiencing the problems of farming, he has studied the present-day agricultural situation with a sympathetic mind. All of his brothers and sisters are still engaged in farming in the county where he was born. Mr. Starr also has gone through the experience of the great industrial development of Gary and Lake county.

After graduating from Indiana university liberal arts department in 1905 and the University of Michigan law school in 1908, Mr. Starr began practicing law in Gary in 1909, immediately identifying himself with the republican party which he has staunchly upheld ever since.

Mr. Starr served as corporation counsel for the city of Gary under Mayor Floyd E. Williams and was chosen chairman of the republican central committee of Lake county in 1925 and 1926, organizing and directing the successful campaign of that year, following which civic interests drafted and elected him prosecutor of the 31st judicial district, comprising Lake county, to combat the growing menace of lawlessness from the bordering Chicago territory. He served as prosecutor from 1927 to 1930 inclusively with a record which won general approval.

In 1934 Mr. Starr was nominated by his party for judge of the appellate court and participated actively in the campaign of that year.

Mr. Starr married Mary Helen Snyder, widely known for her civic and philanthropic interests, in 1913, which marriage continued until her death last year. Mr. Starr has a family of five children in school and newspaper work in Gary.

Known as an ethical attorney of highest standards, he has demonstrated his ability not only in the courts and in public service but also as an organizer of successful campaigns. During our participation in the World War, he was president of the Red Cross for his district and devoted practically his entire time to that work.

"The office of United States senator is a great honor," Mr. Starr stated, "and it offers opportunity to serve all the people. I make you but one pledge and that is to be loyal to all alike. Just how sincere this is, you can best judge by my past record of public and party service."

gilder at the Home, said he had been sent by the commissioners to break up stealing and that he had succeeded. He stated that upon occasion shipments of food sent Thursday would disappear and more supplies would have to be ordered by Monday morning in order that children might have food. This condition no longer is the case, he said. Butter, eggs, hams and other things were found by him, he said, hidden and ready to be sneaked from the premises under cover of night; among these were sacks of potatoes.

Commissions at the Home were inherited by the commissioners, Attorney Frank R. Beckwith asserted, and Miss Maliken had doubtless done the best she could under the circumstances; that is, having no power to fire or otherwise discipline or control personnel subordinate and pleaded as employees as political patronage.

Commissioner Vorhies heatedly asserted that in cases of suggested change, political workers, precinct ward heads were advised of no matter and a warning usually was given the offender. In the event, no change on the personnel's part resulted, they were then liable to removal.

All legitimate reasons were rather well exploded as to why the Public Welfare should not or could not become responsible for the Home. Commissioner Vorhies said he stated that giving the job to another agency would openly admit the commission's inability and incompetency to handle the question properly. That was his biggest reason, he declared.

Mr. Neal of the State Welfare board stated that colored children should have equal opportunity to live normal lives, share benefits and otherwise be accorded the treatment they deserve. His department has placed both white and colored children into private homes, which not only reduced the cost of the state's obligation but allowed them normal expression and social relationships. He offered to assume the work at the Home gladly, to take the whole or part responsibility. The commissioners were cold to this suggestion.

The commissioners have indicated that a board of persons of irreproachable character would be selected to work at the home in an advisory capacity. Attorney Frank Williams, Mrs. Leon Snodden, Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Hanley, Rev. Bell, Rev. Carter and several other prominent and active citizens spoke. Commissioners, despite their delicate approach and cautious treatment, insist they are genuinely interested. Judge Geckler expressed hope that the commissioners and the Welfare department could cooperate. The Baptist Ministers, The Fletcher Oak Hill civic club, Civil Liberties league, The Indianapolis Recorder were represented.

COLOR, CHRISTIANITY AND COMMUNISM

Rev. Herman Mootz - St. Rita's Church

If there is anything that threatens the Colored People, and their progress, in these United States, it is Russian Communism. The first and greatest objection to Communism is that it is atheistic; it is a denial of God. It's avowed purpose is to destroy God in the hearts and minds of mankind. However, let us be quick to add, that while we as patriotic American citizens emphatically reject Communism as false doctrine, we also must reject Hitler's Nazism and Mussolini's Fascism.

Why does Communism threaten the Negro? Communism threatens the Negro because it is making a concerted effort to entice him into its membership. Practically all the Negro is or can ever hope to be he has attained and will attain, either directly or indirectly, through the medium of Christianity. But Communism would destroy Christianity. While Communism takes off its hat to the American Negro and makes a deep, courteous bow before him as his long-sought liberator, it is ready to turn the next moment and stab Christianity in the back.

Why is Christianity the Negro's best friend, because it propounds its Holy doctrine in season and out of season that we all have one common Father in Heaven, that we are all His children, all equal in His sight, that we must love everyone else as we love ourselves, that we must not discriminate against our brother, that he has the same rights as we. Christianity teaches us our true origin and our eternal destiny. Communism is materialistic, and gives us a false philosophy of life. Christianity teaches us brotherly love. Communism teaches us hatred. Christianity declares that justice must prevail in all things. Communism asserts that might is right.

Communism is showing special interest in the American Negro. Why? Because Communists are determined that Moscow shall be the capitol which shall rule every nation in the world. The United States is no exception. They would rule it, too. But why do they make so much fuss over the Negro? Because they are dumb enough to think he will be the easiest prey. Why do they think he will be the easiest victim? Well, they have a few photographs of the American Negro in their minds. They see him lynched, they see him poor, they see him discriminated against in labor, in education, in society. They see his discontent and conclude he is looking for a change. He is looking for a change, but not for a change to something worse, as the Communists will find out. They have yet to learn that the Negro is pretty far advanced in this fool-game. He has been fooled too many times. They may learn that instead of being easier to fool than the white man he is more difficult to fool.

The Communists see in the twelve million Negroes numerical strength. His vote, too, would serve well in putting them into power in this country. They think the Colored Man will serve the purpose of stirring up trouble, anarchy, and of overthrowing the United States Government.

The Communists do not consume any time telling of the real situation in Russia, telling of the wholesale slaughters, the slavery, the starvation, suppression of the press, free speech, and freedom of religious worship. They are tireless in commiserating with the Negro on what a hard time he has. But remember the Communists have an axe to grind. It is true that there is much discrimination and injustice in the United States, and the complaints of the Negro are all too often justifiable. But the Russians are shot down if they even dare to complain in Russia. The glorious march forward which the colored people have made since 1863 has been possible only under the protection of our Constitution which basically is Christian. If Communists do not like Christianity we should not expect them to like our Constitution. Now they are asking the Negro to help them destroy that Constitution. Deep thinkers, aren't they?

The consoling part of it all is that the Negro is too shrewd to fall into their trap in very great numbers. The pathetic and also the surprising part of it all is that some colored men, who have been looked upon nationally heretofore as able, race leaders, have fallen for Communism. They have betrayed the honor and trust their race has given them. The thinking patriotic Negro will soon turn from them.

"COME NOW, DEAR PEOPLE, LET US BE FRIENDS"

...If the Negro youth began to look upon Communism with favor, we might not be so astounded. Their blunder, their betrayal of patriotism might be less culpable. With the inspired writer we could more easily pray God to forgive them the sins of their youth. But when those Negro so-called leaders to whom the colored people look for guidance and leadership, and whom ordinarily we should expect (because seasoned in age and judgment) to be able to trace the proper course for their people — when these men turn Communist, what are we to say? We should rightly expect them to have a well-rounded schooling in the wiles and trickery of false philosophers. We rightly expect them to have learned long since the lesson which the poet teaches us in his fable:

"Once a trap was baited
With a piece of cheese.
It tickled so a little mouse
It almost made him sneeze.

An old rat said 'There's danger;
Be careful where you go.'
'Nonsense!' said the other;
'I don't think you know.'

So he walked in boldly;
No one in sight.
First, he took a nibble;
Then he took a bite.

Snap, closed the trap together
Quick as a wink,
Catching mouse there
Because he didn't think.

But, alas, in these our days, the rats have begun to eat the cheese. These rats, who are gormandizing on the pagan philosophy of Russia, are not only to be found among the Negroes but also among the white people who call themselves Americans. This Russian cheese is poisoned and already it is beginning to corrupt the whole mental and spiritual anatomy of those who are feeding upon it. Already there exudes from them an unbearable stench. Already they are beginning to corrupt the whole American body to spread the pestilence throughout the nation. The cheese is the Russian slave money upon which some American rats, who are going about propagandizing Communism, are feeding and growing fat. Their poison of immorality, godlessness, and paganism is smeared all over this cheese. No Christian, no American worthy of the name, no man or woman who has the advancement of the Colored People at heart can endorse Communism.

They must do more than wash their hands of it. They must openly and persistently oppose it. The present generation of Colored People, and the past generations, have gone too far on the high road of construction and progress to permit the destructive forces of Communism to take root in their ranks. They must march forward to still greater heights of achievement until they have taken their rightful place in the national life. They can never afford to destroy or even to endanger the progress thus far attained at the Red paganism which is flowing from Moscow.

In 1928, at Moscow, one of the delegates to the Sixth International World Congress of the Communist said: "It is a shame that we have only fifty or so party members out of thirteen million Negroes in America." The delegate need not be so ashamed now. Even in our own State of Indiana, the Communists have lavished considerable attention.

In May, 1935, there was held in Washington, D. C., at Howard University (the largest Government-supported institution for Negro education in the United States) a conference on "The Economic Conditions Among Negroes." For three days Communists employed every device to take over the sessions of the conference. A Communist magazine was sold at the doors; Communists propounded their doctrines openly and under the masks of questions and objections to the speakers; Government specialists, who had accepted invitations to speak, were heckled and humiliated, and the efforts of the Government were belittled.

The company is sound in its underwriting, and its business is of good quality and is substantial in volume. The mortality ratio has been most favorable. All just claims are settled promptly and in full. No company has a finer record in this matter.

The Rex has proven itself to be stalwart, dependable and entirely worthy of the full measure of confidence it has enjoyed these many years. Its record shows a steady growth which has come through strict adherence to fundamental principles of security, service, and complete mutuality.

The personnel of the company includes: John H. Toy, president and Callie Watkins, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Toy, who organized the company in Vincennes, but brought it to Indianapolis, in the first few months of its operation, is a man of broad insurance experience. Have your policies kept pace with your growing family, property and business? Don't neglect this important question.
PROTECTION

YOU can buy it. It's inexpensive. It's easy to maintain. It requires but two things: foresight and action. Acknowledge your vulnerable points and take immediate steps to protect them, today.

There are a great many people that decry the life insurance business but they are the people that have not thought about it. Life insurance is a savings bank if you choose to put it on the simplest, plainest business basis. It is not only a savings bank, but it is collateral. Quick as a flash—unforeseen—unavoidable—comes the stroke of an Accident; Every Accident has its Pathetic Story of Physical suffering, worry and anxiety over financial loss—loss of earning power, loss of savings, loss of time. We have devised an entirely new insurance plan that, for a Deposit of a few cents a week will absorb financial worry and protect against unforeseen accidents.

Mrs. McNeill to Retire From School Board

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.—Mrs. Mary McNeill, member of the board of education for the past twelve years announced this week that she will decline reappointment when her term ends June 30.

Mrs. McNeill was appointed to the board in July, 1926, and indicated that she wished to retire at the expiration of her present three-year term which ends the last of next month.

She gave as her reason her belief in the rotation of board members and expressed the opinion that 12 years was enough for any one member. Mrs. McNeill who is the wife of Dr. William C. McNeill, prominent physician, succeeded Mrs. Coralie F. Cook.

She is chairman of the Students Activities Committee and member of the board's Personnel Committee and Community Use of Building Committee.

Mrs. McNeill was known as a champion of teachers' rights and the equality of educational opportunity for all children. She also stood for the professional advancement of teachers and the high professional and personal qualifications of persons seeking appointment as teachers and officers in the public schools of the district.

She advocated extension of the evening school service and the promotion of adult education. She exercised rare independence in discussing and voting upon educational issues and was never afraid to stand alone for advocacy of an educational proposition.

She believed in the Washington school system and urged the selection and appointment of the qualified persons of the district.

STAFF MEMBERS TAKE WEEK-END TRIP

A week-end trip was taken by George O. White, of the mechanical department, and Gerald L. Porter, circulation manager, through southern Indiana.

In New Albany many interesting people were met. Horace Brandy, who is director of the Floyd County Drum and Bugle Corps composed of young boys and girls who are making a great name for themselves. Mr. Brandy is one of New Albany's most popular citizens and is also manager of the baseball team in Jeffersonville, besides being one of the race's most powerful politicians.

They visited the Lindsey family, from there to the Second Baptist church where the Rev. Mr. King in preference to outsiders. She stood four square on an equal program for all of the children and recently won a victory when she urged the board to instruct a local organization to include colored children in an education program which was given at Constitution Hall.

In a recent editorial in a local paper in regard to her retirement it said: "This announcement of Mrs. W. C. McNeill's intention to retire from the Board of Education in June means the loss to that board of one of its most popular and liberal members."

"In her 12 years of unpaid service, Mrs. McNeill has now the respect of its membership and those who deal with the schools for her intelligent and fair outlook on problems of education."

"A champion of increased opportunity for her race, she has always sought to have the same educational prospects made available to the colored children as are put before the white children, especially in connection with contests sponsored by outside groups in the public schools."

The teachers, especially will lose a devoted friend and one who is in complete sympathy with their problems in the field of education."

is pastor. After spending about four hours in New Albany they departed for Jeffersonville, found The Recorder, Indiana's Greatest Weekly. The Recorder representative, Mrs. Lottie Brown, who is doing an excellent job handling the correspondence and distributing The Recorder, Indiana's Greatest Weekly.

After visiting here, they proceeded to Madison. Here they were met by Harry Harris, one of Madison's beau brummels, and were shown the town.

In North Vernon, they met the Rev. H. P. Mays, the new minister who replaced the Rev. L. R. Simons. The Rev. Mr. Mays will serve as The Recorder representative in North Vernon. After spending some time in North Vernon they left for Shelbyville and spent about an hour at the Staffords whose charming daughter is now doing graduate work at Atlanta University. Upon leaving the Staffords, they visited a couple of Shelbyville spots and departed for home, arriving about 8 P. M.

Accommodations for Race On Chi--Hot Springs Run

CHICAGO, May 13. (By Albert G. Barnett for ANP)—Arthur W. Mitchell, Representative in Congress from Chicago's first district lost the preliminary skirmish in his battle against the Jim Crow railroad cars of the South, here Thursday, when William A. Disque, Interstate Commerce Commission examiner ruled that the "present Negro (Jim Crow) coach meets requirements of the law."

On April 20, 1937, en route Chicago to Hot Springs, Ark., Congressman Mitchell was denied an accommodations (which his first-class ticket called for) and was compelled to ride in the Jim Crow car (second-class accommodations). As a result of the humiliating incident, Mitchell, through his counsel, Atty. Richard E. Westbrook of Chicago, filed suit in Circuit Court here against the Pullman Company, the Rock Island Railway, and the Illinois Central. The suit has jurisdiction in Illinois because all the companies involved have general offices in Chicago.

Supplementing the Illinois suit, the Congressman and Attorney Westbrook took the case to the Interstate Commerce Commission, filing affidavits detailing the discrimination involved and basing the complaint on the railroad's refusal to give Mitchell the first-class accommodation his ticket called for. Mitchell retained the stub of his first-class ticket which Attorney Westbrook considers one of the main exhibits in the case.

The Examiner's Decision. Examiner Disque, after handing down his ruling at Chicago's Morrison hotel, recommended that Mitchell's complaint be dismissed. Disque's ruling was "As there is comparatively little Negro traffic and not like to be such a demand for Pullman, dining and observation-parlor car accommodations for Negro passengers as to warrant the running of any extra cars, the discrimination and prejudice is plainly not unjust and undue."

Commission May Reverse Ruling. Attorney Westbrook said, "When we appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission and present our oral arguments, the case will be discussed in its entirety, we are battling a nefarious system. One that forces Negroes to pay first class and accept second-class service and accommodations. We have a clean-cut case. Even the train officials, including the conductor, admit the accommodations for white and colored, on Congressman Mitchell's train were not equal, and that there were no first-class accommodations for Negroes. All this, we will present to the Commission, and if, after all the evidence has been heard, the Interstate Commerce body finds no justification for the examiner's recommendation, it will disallow it."

Congressman Mitchell, in Washington, when informed of the examiner's adverse ruling, declared he would continue unabated his fight against the vicious inequalities of the South's Jim Crow law and that, if necessary, he would carry the case to the U. S. Supreme Court.

BANKETT Says:

Editor's Note—The author of this series, being published exclusively in The Indianapolis Recorder, is himself a former newspaper man, for years he has published the biggest little paper in the world. He is an outstanding economist and a political commentator worthy of hearing because he has something to say.

JOHN C. BANKETT

Senator George L. Berry, who was for a while President Roosevelt's coordinator for industrial recovery, stated, "The nation is in a very difficult struggle, and that is not an overstatement of fact. The greatest problem that confronts this country is the huge tax load which business must carry. While we usually speak of the government taxes, tax load in the several states is much higher. Last year nearly one third of the total earnings of the American people was taken to support the various units of government from township up to the Federal government. This can not go on."

The President stated in his most recent radio address that we had to raise the purchasing power of the people to be able to return men to work in our factories. That is so. But, we will never raise the purchasing power of the masses if we rob them of a greater part of their income to support tax eaters and I am not talking about the people on relief. The unemployed have my sympathy. I am as poor as any man on relief but I realize that it is the policy of this administration of the Federal government and the administration in the several states which has brought this depression and this condition will continue until there is a change in our political management.

The President in his radio address had much to say about hatred and unjust criticism showing plainly that hatred will bring chaos. All that the President said was true and he spoke as one in authority. He has preached for five years and I do not blame him for wishing to put an end to it. Just how we are going to cause men to love one another after sowing a seed of hatred and malice for five years, is one of our great problems. Cooperation we must have. Hatred must go and taxes must be reduced. I can not see how we can achieve either with Roosevelt in the White House who is the cause of both.

LOCAL MINISTER GIVEN 2 CALLS FOR SERVICE

The Rev. Cornell E. Talley, of Indianapolis, has received calls to the pastorate of two of the most popular churches connected with the Baptist denomination. On Wednesday night, April 27, the Mt. Zion Baptist church, of Indianapolis, extended to Rev. Mr. Talley a call to her pastorate, while just one week later the Central Baptist church of Pittsburgh, Pa., by an unanimous vote, tendered him a call. These two churches are numbered among the finest religious organizations in this country. The Indianapolis church has a membership of about nine hundred and the Steel City church has a membership well over two thousand.

The young reverend, in receiving the Mt. Zion call is being invited to succeed his father, Dr. Marshall A. Talley, who for over six years was the successful pastor. Under his administration the church debt was reduced from $11,000 to less than $1500. Dr. Talley resigned to accept the position as Religious Education Secretary of the National Baptist Convention, Inc. Rev. Cornell Talley served as assistant and associate pastor under his father at the Zion church for three years. The younger Rev. Talley has also served as an assistant pastor to the Olivet Baptist church, of Chicago, of which Dr. L. K. Williams is minister.

The Central Baptist church is one of the largest in the Baptist connection. It has numbered among its prominent ministers, the late Dr. George W. Howard, Dr. W. Augustus Jones, and the late Dr. C. A. Ward. The call, therefore, coming from Central, comes from one of the most coveted pulpits in this country. A reliable report comes that the enthusiasm at Central church is very high over the call extended to this youthful minister.

Rev. Talley, who is a graduate of Morehouse College, Butler University, and who has finished his residence work for the B. D. degree at the University of Chicago, has not accepted either call as yet. He promises to make a decision within the next two weeks. He preached for the people of the Mt. Zion church on Mother's Day and will speak at the Central church in Pittsburgh on the third Sunday in May.

The news of these two calls comes somewhat as a surprise to his friends, yet Rev. Talley has prepared himself educationally, as well as practically and is well deserving of these honors. During his six years' residence in Indianapolis he has earned for himself the respect, honor and reverence which his position demands, from both black and white. Over a score of telegrams, long-distance phone calls, and letters have come to his office in the form of congratulations. Besides being a spiritual gospel preacher, Rev. Talley has gained for himself much distinction as a singer, writer, and lecturer.

NATIONAL INSURANCE WEEK

Wide attention should be directed to the observance of National Negro Insurance Week. Some of its possibilities and deeper significances not only should be emphasized again and again but unlimited effort should be made to carry the program in simple terms to all persons in such manner that they will be "sold."

Insurance is not only a crutch to be used during a siege of illness or at death, it is a vital instrument for business and social growth in the community. By cashing policies or getting loans on them, the whole realm of business and economic activity is opened to those needing finance in order to engage in or refinance business or industrial enterprise.

Through insurance, aggressive and foresighted men have woven a strong thread in our economic pattern. These companies have subsidized business, lent money on interest rates, sponsored and bolstered real estate through loans, subsidies, judicious buying and mortgages, and all in all have steadfastly contributed in a most substantial way to the wealth and well-being of the nation.

Because colored people are as a rule under-insured, every effort must be made to place within their hands the many benefits to be derived from proper insurance. Aside from the security offered by a policy in old age, money for medical aid during times of illness, children can be educated, and at death an estate can be left which will leave the dependents with a degree of financial security. This estate can cover the expense of funeral and other services, pay the creditors and otherwise leave the deceased's estate and his dependents free of the burden of debts.

Another side of insurance is the thousands of jobs given colored people. A wide range of employment is thus provided for the boys and girls being graduated from our schools yearly as well as for aggressive persons who have not been formally trained. Insurance is not a crutch for the ailing or bereaved alone, it has scores of wide uses and they can be used to your advantage in business, education, loans, and various other fields. Learn about insurance, then use it.

TRAINING FOR ALL

Greater and more wide-spread interest has been aroused in Vocational Rehabilitation for crippled and handicapped persons. Of the phases of education and of the many projects designed to help people, this one to bring about readjustment for crippled or handicapped persons is by far the best to which all may devote their interests and energies.

Whereas it has been taken more or less for granted that handicapped persons can look forward to limited job opportunities and circumscribed social contribution and activity, it is definitely heartening that authorities are beginning to plan educational programs which embrace all and allow expression and the chance to live normal lives in relative measure.

No individual in the community should rest until he has been in some measure responsible for interesting some needful person in this program. The community must become educated to the possibilities of it and interest must be aroused in order that the full program be realized; and by full program I mean finding or helping to find jobs for crippled or handicapped persons after they have been trained. Society owes much to itself and must do much to maintain self-respect; we have grown beyond the cave days and since we are civilized we must behave like people who have had the advantages. This program challenges every person to do his share in helping us maintain our self-respect. Do all you can to further this movement.

... OF THE PEOPLE

CRUISING 'ROUND

(By L. J. MARTIN)

1. Election's Evolution.
2. Poll Workers Fearful.
3. Heads We Win—Tails We Win.
4. Traditionally, Negro Jobs Are Gone For Good.

THE LOCAL PRIMARY election finished as many thought it would with the main organization of the two major parties nominating virtually their entire slates. We had our friends, we worked hard for them, some of us were able to see our friends come out on top in our precincts, yet lose the nomination, because they were not endorsed by the most powerful group. Elections today are a whole lot different from those years ago. 'Twas then that Bill Jones ran against John Smith, and the only issue between the two men was mostly personal. Bill Jones was a high-brow, or John Smith was a false half, but it was not long before issues came along. John Smith began to tell how he thought things ought to be run and got people to believe his way. Bill Jones took the opposite side and got other people believing his way. They fought it out in speeches and at the "polls" the one having made the best appeal won. Now elections are like all other mass productions, those who wish to run for a public office are given numbers, the numbers are put into the organization machinery—few of the numbers are ground "out," the others are ground "up." This is the way of the age, it evidently is the intention of such a process to grind out better officials; that we must wait and see. We do know however that some mighty good ones have been ground "up."

ONE THING that was very noticeable on Primary Day was the effects of the threats of Machine Buster Mr. Ray's organization, although such threats lost Mr. Ray a hat of votes for as one person put it—I am a Republican, but I would hate to see the Democrats nominate Otto Ray. I would be afraid they would carry out their threats. These threats so affected many poll workers that they were almost afraid to ask for support of their friends. One voter wanted to see a slate; after much asking, a worker finally searched the inner compartments of her bag and brought out one perfectly legal slate, showed it to the voter and stuffed it back into her purse—the workers were not taking any chances on doing anything that could be construed or misconstrued as illegal.

THE MOST satisfying results of the primary for us: the success of Mr. Ransom, for city council; Mr. Cable for state legislature, on the Democratic ticket; Mr. Frank Beckwith for city council, Dr. Purcell for county council, and Mr. Cary Jacobs for state legislature on the Republican ticket. Thus, we are assured of capable representation either way the wind blows.

THE SHREVEPORT SUN sounds a timely warning of Negro insecurity and laments the fact that the majority of our workers are unskilled in the use of machinery, advises them to prepare along this line, which is exceedingly hard to do without apprenticeships. It also asks that we strive to get back the jobs that once were always ours. This is well-nigh impossible. Those jobs, hotel waiters, bell-boys, trainmen, drayage men, etc., are going and going, maybe forever. We have to use the intelligence we have, supposedly, acquired in the last seventy years to create work for ourselves and others, use our energy in opening up new fields—that heretofore have been untouched, cling tenaciously to what we have as the "Sun" advises.

MR. HERBERT HOOVER, speaking before the "Grass Rooters" in Oklahoma, urges us to adopt a "sane" road. Naturally anyone able to forecast "grass" growing in the streets of a thousand cities can see grass in a road at a "Grass Rooters" Convention.

KELLY MILLER Says:

KELLY MILLER INTERVIEWS
 DR. W. J. THOMPkins, RE-CORDER OF DEEDS ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Dr. Thompson, as the highest ranking appointive Negro Democratic official under the Roosevelt administration, your judgment as to the Negro vote in the coming Congressional and Presidential elections is naturally of nationwide interest.

Q.—Do you think that the remarkable drift vote to Democratic ranks during the last three national elections will be permanent?

A.—Yes. For 64 years the Negroes perpetuated the Republican Party in office. This was conclusively shown by the Lily White Organization started by Taft down through the grand finale of the Hoover administration which divorced the bulk of the Negroes from the Republican Party. Recent elections in such cities as Kansas City, where the Negro wards showed a much larger Democratic vote proportionately than the white wards, give evidence that peace and contentment in the Democratic Party is on the upward trend with assured permanency.

Q.—Do you consider the treatment which the race has received at the hands of the Democratic administration justifies its continued support of that Party?

A.—Emphatically, yes.

Q.—What in your judgement has the Republican Party done during the last five years or is likely to do to offset the benefits which the race has received from the New Deal?

A.—Nothing has been done during the past five years of the Republican Administration, and nothing can possibly be expected. The New Deal has meant more and has done more from an economic standpoint than has ever been done by all previous administrations.

Q.—Do you consider that the New Deal under Franklin D. Roosevelt holds out greater promise to the Negro than the Old Deal under Taft, Harding and Hoover?

A.—Yes. Beginning with the Taft Administration, through the Harding and with the tragic ending of the Hoover regime, all of these Administrations showed the desecration or the decline of the Negroes in Republican politics. These administrations disavowed the Negro and annihilated him politically and economically. The New Deal under Franklin D. Roosevelt has given him new hope and a representative place in every department of the Government. Never before in the history of our Nation have Negro Scientists, architects, Engineers and Educators been given even the semblance of an opportunity as has been given scores and scores of the members of the race. In fact, the Taft, Harding and Hoover Administrations offered no promise or hope to our race. Rather did they come to the horrible end—extermination—the deluge.

Q.—How do you appraise the economic and industrial benefits which the New Deal has already brought and is calculated to bring to the Negro?

A.—More than 15,000 Negroes in the CCC camps have been taught to read and write. Thousands of Negroes have been employed in scientific and industrial projects throughout the country, to the point of developing themselves into the classes of skilled tradesmen and artisans. This opportunity, which has come for the first time, has lifted them to a higher efficiency, has enabled them to meet the economic and industrial requirements of the present, better and has strengthened them to meet competition in a bigger way in the future, whereby they are enjoying more freedom and more representation in the councils of labor.

Q.—Do you believe that the political and civil rights of the Negro in the South are more likely to be promoted by the pacificatory policy of Franklin D. Roosevelt than by the frontal attack on the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendment which the Republican Party once attempted and afterwards abandoned?

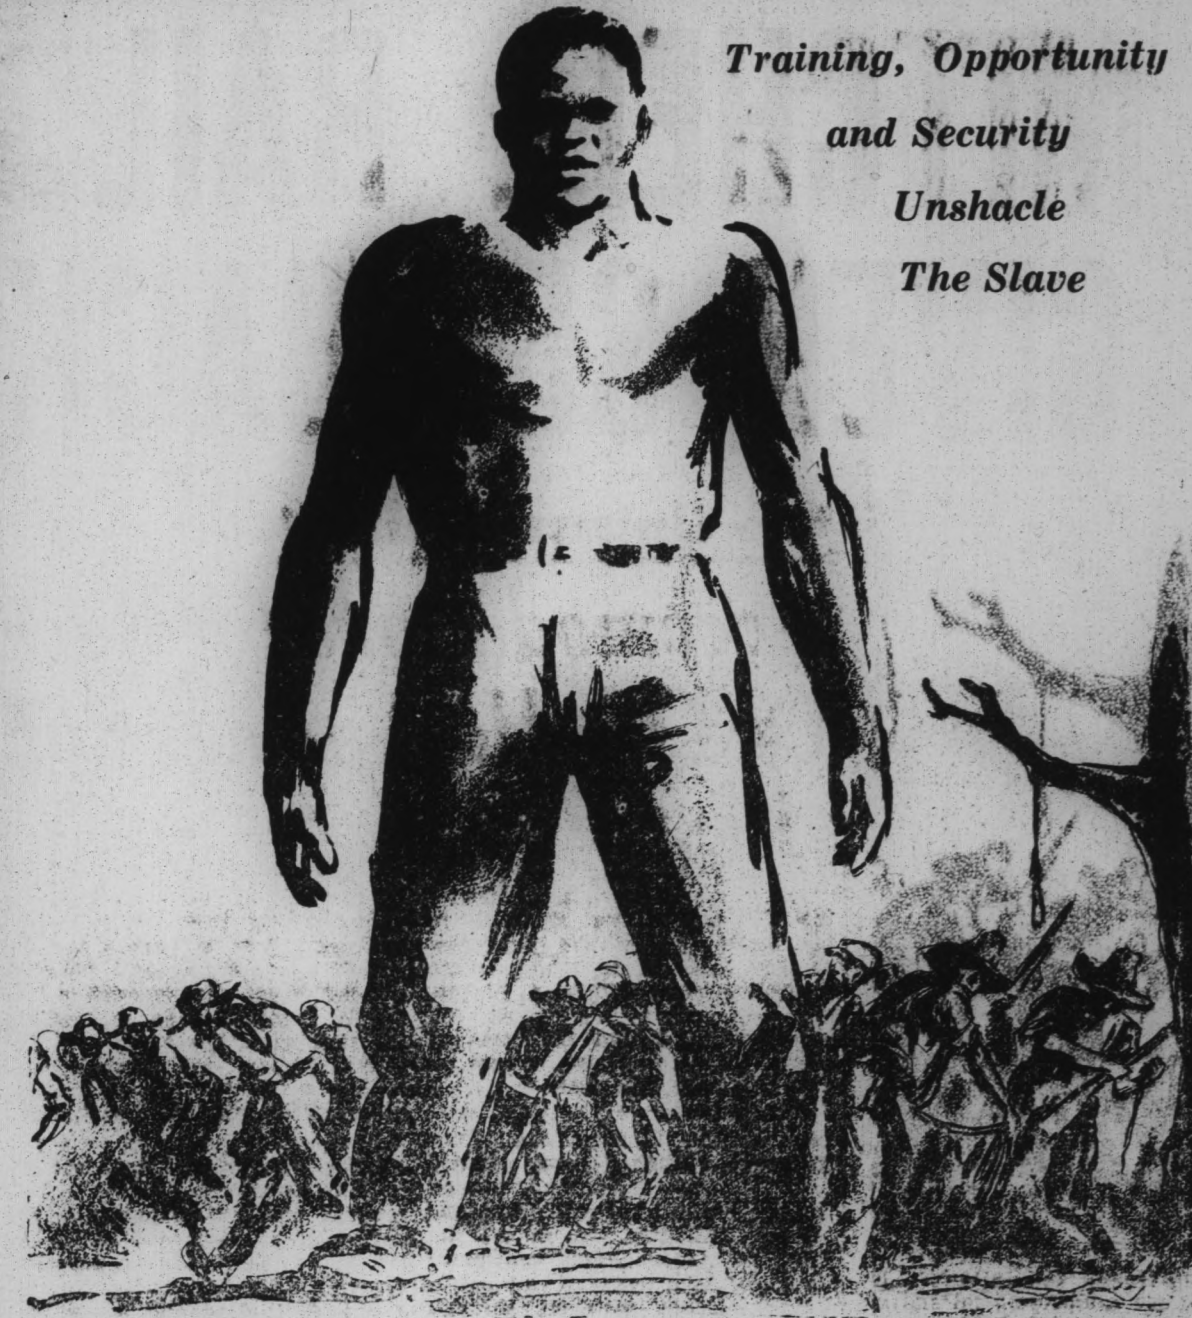

A.—Yes. As evidence we have several of the southern states encouraging Negroes to assume and maintain their political and civil responsibilities. In the councils of Democracy, this policy of the President has been far reaching, bursting even the confines of the Democratic Party, brushing aside old Southern traditions with astounding amazement—only recently Negro athletes were invited to Texas and competed with whites in Dallas. Negro pictures and classics are appearing in Southern newspapers. Texas, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia as well as Oklahoma recently competed with Negro Athletes in the Pennsylvania, Iowa, and Kansas relays. In every phase of our National life, Roosevelt's policies, have lifted the race higher.

Q.—What is the continued ascendancy of the Democrat in National politics calculated to effect adversely the status of the Negro race as a whole?

A.—No! It is calculated to raise the status of the Negro race as a whole. The Negro must profit, however, by the mistakes of the Negro Republican leadership. He must rise to the occasion of assuming and maintaining his due social position. He must practice loyalty, unity, and impress upon the race the necessity of sharing the responsibilities of the Party as well as the assets. He must be taught to pay poll tax and register. He must be taught that which has never been taught by the Republican Negro Leadership, that citizenship carried with it the responsibility of financial support, effective organization and activities, just as strong on the "givers end," yes—stronger than on the "receivers end." To achieve, you must serve. To receive, you must give. With these principles advocated and practiced, there will be no adverse status.

Q.—What is your opinion concerning the relative attitude of the old line bourgeois Democrats of the South and the New issue of Lily White Republican of that section?

A.—The old line bourgeois Democrats of the South live in the realm of their traditions and retain their traditional pride. However, back of this, they like the Negroes and Man's Estate—Ince.

 This is an interesting story of farm life in an English homestead in Norfolk. The story is centered around the Morricombe family. They love their home and the family devotion is of a high dignified quality. The story carries you from childhood to maturity and gives many beautiful portraits of the life at the English homestead. One critic has said, "What I like about it is the attitude of mind which can see humble life plainly and candidly, yet not pick out for emphasis the dirt and sweat."

"RULE OR RUIN" IS HARMFUL

To Editor, The Recorder:
 Every so often we find Negroes who could be, if they desired, great forces of influence in our political and civic lives, but who would rather be troublemakers. The rule or ruin attitude of some of our so-called political bosses is not only harmful to themselves but to others and when one of these receives a setback, it affords great satisfaction for those of us who are against such tactics.

One of these, on the North side, received such a setback in last week's primary when one of his "protégés" was defeated at the polls in the race for precinct committeeman. For the fifth time, this boss, has used others to pull his political chestnuts from the fire, while he, himself, has remained in the background. Some day the wise will wake up and refuse to be the victims of this schemer and he will be relegated to the political ash heap where all such troublemakers belong.

Not only on the North side but other sections of our city are infested with these leeches as are both the major parties. Wake up, Mr. Voter, in union there is strength, don't let these ambitious troublemakers divide your opinions and votes to satisfy their own personal ambitions.

LAY ASIDE DEAD WORKS

Every Easter, we celebrated Jesus' rising from the dead. This means that we should rise from the dead, so let's start rising now by laying aside all dead works. Speaking to the Church, which is Christ's Body, do you know that the candlestick was removed from the candlestick with hands over a century ago? Now the children constitute the church, but we should still go to the church houses or places of worship and our meetings should be the same with the exception of the use of water for the putting away of sin and the taking of the Sacrament and the Lord's supper. Those things were used as the substitute for the true things of Heaven until the true things came, but now the true things which thing are spiritual have come. We use these true things for a saving power. We do not need the substitutes, Jesus says. Mind the words that come from His mouth. The Bible is His word and it says: "One Lord, One faith and one baptism. John the Baptist baptized with water unto repentance at which time Jesus came forth saying, 'Repent and believe.' Baptizing with Holy Ghost and with fire. So let's let him do the baptizing from now on."

Dear Angels that are standing in the gateway of Christ's Kingdom, feed His Lambs.

long for them to be one of them, but they cannot arise to the occasion to ask him. Thus, they ask no grounds and give none to those who have opposed them for sixty-four years. The Lily White Republicans of the South are the selfish offsprings of the old "carpet baggers"—the dregs of the Bourbons, who have no traditions, no special respect for the South as it is for the North—but are rather opportunists and "wolves in sheep's clothing" who want the support of the Negroes in the Party but are not willing nor have they any intention of sharing. They have no principle and little respect. They have failed in their own ranks and are constantly hoping to share the "spoils" alone when the opposite party is in power. The Lily Whites are the Negroes most dispicable opponent, far worse than the most rabid Bourbons. They will ask and use you and then destroy you, while the Bourbons ask no grounds and give no grounds.

Q.—What effect will the lamentable fate of the Wagner-Van Noy Anti-Lynching Bill have upon the Negro vote in the fall election?

A.—None! For twenty-five years the Republican Party "luffed" about the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill and it was never brought to discussion in the Senate, notwithstanding the Republicans had the House, the Senate and the Supreme Court for more than a half century. At the first opportunity where voting closure would have ultimately brought the Anti-Lynching Bill to a successful end, the Republicans declined to vote because they knew that the Democrats would have been given credit for

 We can not tell, we do not know
 Just why our Lord has willed it so,
 That you in bed, each day must be,
 Nor why He suffered this for thee.
 And yet you're there, and it is true,
 No matter what is done for you.

 Have you read, or have you heard
 What Jesus said in His Holy Word?
 Cast your cares on Him each day,
 He will take your pains away.
 When in misery smile, and endure
 He suffered so much more for you.

3.
 Your illness may be hard to bear,
 But take to Him your every care,
 He alone knows just how you feel,
 He not only saves, but He will heal.
 You must not ever discouraged be,
 Just think of Him on Calvary.

 Oh, think how blest your lot has been,
 These weeks that you have been shut in.
 Your husband, daughter, and a neighbors, too,
 Have tried to do their best for you,
 Just praise His name, for you see,
 How much worse you could be.

5.
 Now Jesus bore His cross alone,
 You have help, when yours is borne,
 When it seems too hard to bear,
 Your loving Savior is right there.
 So think how sweet, since you've been in,
 Jesus Christ has been your friend.

 If your suffering, do not complain,
 Have faith in Him, when you're in pain.
 We are praying for you as He has said,
 That you will soon be out of bed.
 Now be patient, and real sweet
 This from your friend across the street.

MISS BUSY BODY
 (By Mrs. Cecilia Carter, Evansville, Ind.)
 What is it now, "Miss Busy Body?"
 I know you have something to tell,
 And if it isn't that, I'm quite aware,
 That you have something to sell.

Oh! bringing gossip, eh? That's what I thought.
 It is just about all you know.
 You've received nothing but disgrace and ought
 You play "Polly," everywhere you go.

If you aren't talking about your neighbors,
 You're trying to sell them your no-good junk,
 And when they ask you to do little favors,
 You try to chew their heads off by the hunk.

Why come to me with your gossip mess,
 Such stuff as that I can't tolerate,
 The ways and habits that you possess,
 Are the very things I dislike and hate.

Not meaning to lose friendship, but I advise,
 That you will never again enter my door
 Until you have gotten sensible and wise,
 And never use these bad habits anymore.

YOUR HEALTH

... IS YOUR WEALTH ...

A-HUM ON THE OLD CATARRH
 Formerly catarrh meant inflammation of any mucous membrane. Mucous membrane lines every cavity or opening that communicates with the outside world. More recently catarrh has signified particularly inflammation of the mucous membrane lining the nasal passages, chronic rhinitis.

Causes of simple chronic rhinitis are: (1) living in overheated, excessively dried out atmosphere indoors most of the time; (2) overeating of refined food—too large a proportion of the calories yielded by pure starches and sugars, yet diet usually deficient in minerals and vitamins which have been removed or destroyed in process of refining natural food; (3) sedentary habit and the poor circulation accompanying it; (4) damage done by frequent infection; due to popular credulity in reference to weather, drafts, dampness, sudden changes, and the like; (5) habit of wearing excessive clothing.

In the winter time when houses, offices, shops, cars, theaters, and schools are artificially heated, the room temperature should be kept at 68 degrees F. If it is permitted to go to 73 or 75 most people are sure to be stuffy from abnormal congestion of the head, whether they realize it is too warm or not. However heated, the winter air, containing a fair amount of water vapor, becomes dried out, and if heated above 68 degrees it becomes drier than the driest desert air ever becomes naturally. In every instance, then, where artificial heating is necessary, the air should be conditioned by the evaporation of sufficient water to keep the humidity as nearly as practicable at the level of that of an ideal autumn day—40 to 50 per cent. Generally this requires the evaporation of at least fifteen or twenty gallons of water daily in the air of an eight-room house. Air-conditioning equipment now built or installed in modern buildings works automatically. In any circumstance a simple humidifier consisting of a galvanized metal reservoir holding a few gallons of water in which hang many folds of absorbent wicking looped over a wire frame above the water, may be placed on radiator or register in each room, and will evaporate enough water to matter. Persons abnormally sensitive to chill or a sense of discomfort from cold should remember that air of fair relative humidity (35 per cent to 55 per cent) at a temperature of 65 to 68 is more comfortable than air excessively dried out (relative humidity 10 per cent to 20 per cent) at a temperature of 73 to 75 degrees. Only one who has tried this can realize the economy and hygiene of conditioning the air to maintain the "comfort zone." Every one knows how excessive aridity affects plants, furniture, book binding, many know how harsh and irritable it makes the skin; few stop to consider that the extreme dryness of the heated air in winter damages the delicate mucous membrane lining of the respiratory tract. Here is a prolific contributing cause of chronic catarrhal trouble as well as a predisposing factor of the croup. It accounts also for many of the abnormal reactions which uninformed or misinformed laymen so naively attribute to draft, dampness, wet feet, change of weather.

News at A Glance

By Albert G. Barnet for ANP

BOSTON.—A group of distinguished officials—including Governor Charles Hurley, Hon. Ralph Robert, chairman, State Board of Parole, and Judge Frankland W. Miles—of the Roxbury court joined with colored friends here last Monday, in paying tribute to Atty.-Gen. Butler at the funeral rites held at St. Mark's Congregational church, the Rev. S. L. Lavinscott, officiating. A church, civic, and political leader, Attorney Butler was a member of the Parole Board, and overwork was said to have hastened his death.

DALLAS, Tex.—Because of "an ominous threat of violence" which, last Friday, seemed to gain currency through the city, a meeting, scheduled to be held at the Y. W. C. A. and featuring Walter White, executive secretary, N. A. A. C. P., was cancelled and transferred to the Y. M. C. A., Fritz Cansler, secretary, where Mr. White delivered his speech, unmolested. Concerning lynching, the South's notorious pastime, he said: "Many Northern Senators are in favor of the anti-lynching bill but they are afraid to voice support, because of the effect it will have on their Southern colleagues."

BULAWAYO, Rhodesia.—In a recent speech at a conference marking the laying of the cornerstone at the David Livingstone Mission, Mr. G. M. Huggins, prime minister of Southern Rhodesia, advocated ed segregation, declaring there was still time for the country to be divided into separate areas for white and black. In native areas, he said, the black man must be allowed to rise to any position he was capable of holding, and: "Every step of industrial and social pyramid must be open to him, excepting only—and always—the very top. For what can be done, we may point to Uganda. For what must be avoided, we may look to Haiti and Liberia."

NEW BERN, N. C.—Rev. D. F. Martinez, managing editor of the New Bern World, has been appointed field representative of Tuskegee Institute, in connection with Tuskegee's new catering department and "Service" Magazine. He will have charge of the State of North Carolina.

CHICAGO.—Headed by H. C. Roberts, president, and H. R. Jackson, secretary, upwards of 400 colored waiters in the Loop District—employed at the Palmer House, Sherman hotel, Auditorium hotel, and Illinois Athletic club—have formed the Federation of Waiters and Hotel Attendants, applied for a Craft Charter from the Hotel and Restaurant Employees Int. Alliance and Bartenders International League of America. They expect the international's general executive board to act on their application this week.

JOHANNESBURG, S. Africa.—At Saturday's Witwatersrand University graduation exercises, Mr. Walleth Benedict Vilakazi, a Zulu, stepped forward, received from the president his master of arts degree. He was the only African student in the graduation class, the only student to be awarded the master's degree. The exercises were held at City Hall.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo.—A feature of the May 19 commencement exercises at John S. Cobb school here will be the dedication of the school's new WPA $50,000 gymnasium. Robert S. Cobb, son of the late Professor Cobb, for which the school is named, will deliver both the commencement and dedicatory address, according to Supt. of Schools L. J. Schultz.

ST. JOSEPH, La.—Last Sunday, dressed in their "best clothes" and filling a wooden school building and two adjacent structures, 2,497 Negro farm workers—comprising the largest graduation class in the history of the state—filed past State Superintendent of Education T. H. Harris, received from him their certificates attesting completion of three months' study at a WPA school. All had received the equivalent of a third grade education. Oldest graduate was 99 years old. Robert Johnson, 72, got his certificate. John Lee, 66, one-legged, scored twice, receiving both his certificate and a new artificial leg.

KINGSTON, Jamaica.—Last Monday, following disorders at the Tate and Lyle estate, during which 1,000 disappointed laborers allegedly destroyed an auto belonging to the estate, raised a ruckus generally, the 1714 Riot Act was read, its provisions enforced by 100 police. Stem of the riot was a strike, called Saturday by 600 workers building a sugar factory who declared they were underpaid and compelled to sleep in a room among barrels of cement.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—Facing Federal Judge George C. Taylor last week, Hill Willis, arrested for violation of the Internal Revenue Act, won his freedom on the novel plea that he had gone to the distillery for whiskey to be used as a medicine, explained: "I had had plenty, so de doctor told me to drink plenty whiskey, wid herbs on de top."

RACE HOUSING AT PENN RELAYS IS PROTESTED

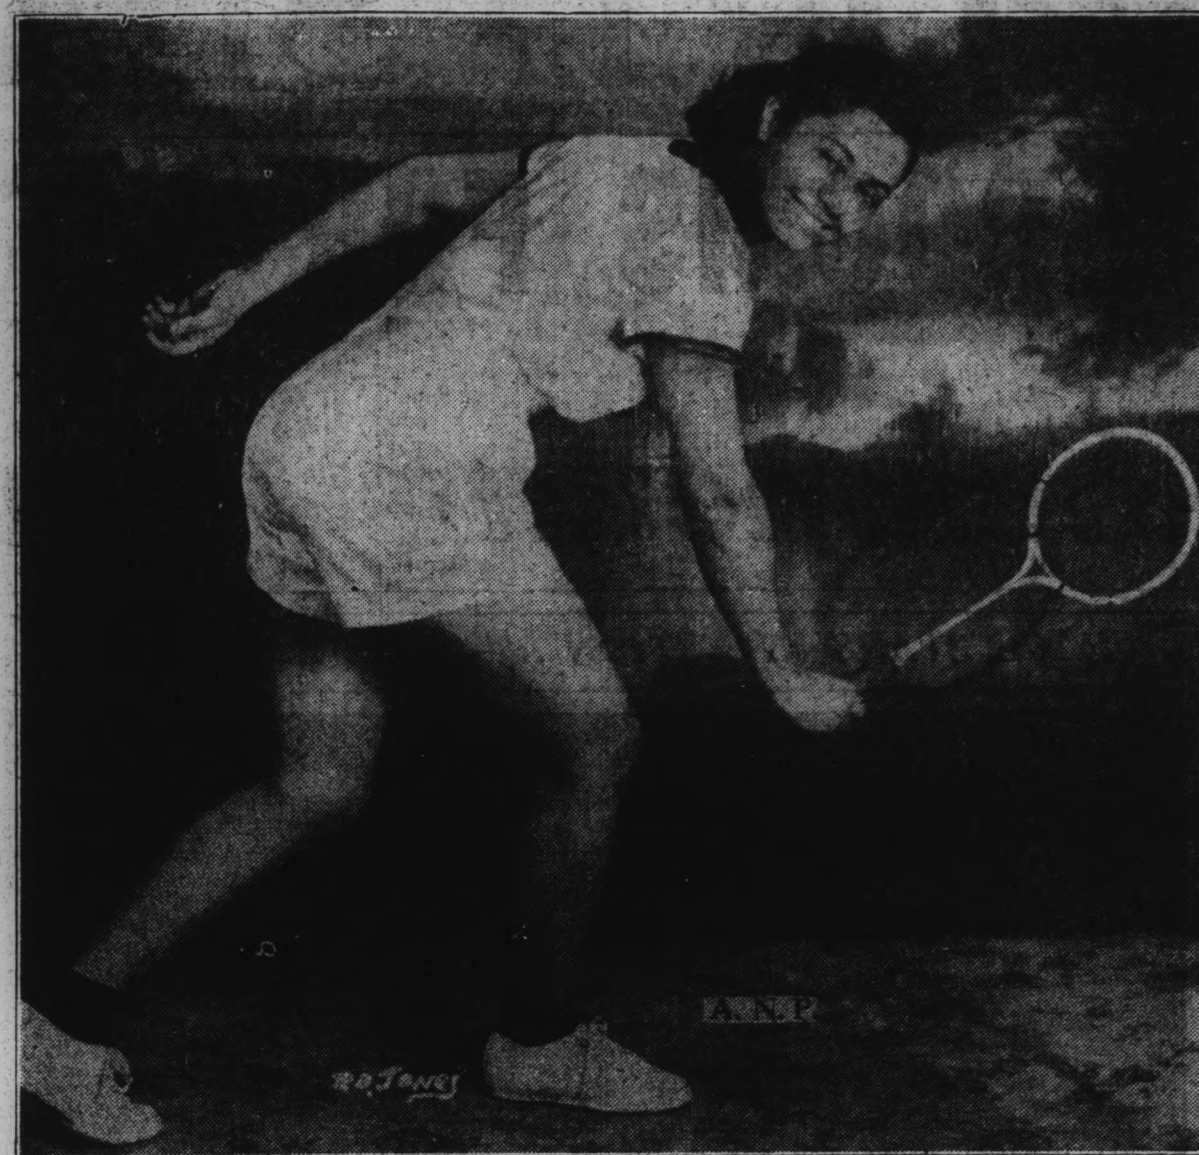

NEW YORK, May 13.—A protest against the inadequate and jim crow housing arrangements for colored members of the track teams which competed in the recent Penn Relays, was lodged with the board of education here by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Complaints were made to the N. A. A. C. P. by colored high school track stars from DeWitt Clinton high school, Evander Childs high school, and the High School of Commerce. They charged that the white members of their teams were lodged in downtown Philadelphia hotels, but the colored members were sent to the colored Y. M. C. A., which was not able to care for them. Four boys would have had no place to sleep had not one of them known a family in Philadelphia. The DeWitt Clinton high school seemed to be the worst case. Coach Scher refused to make any arrangements for the three colored members on his team, and the case is all the more glaring because Geo. Littlejohn, one of the colored boys, is captain of the track team. Coach Scher is reported to have told the boys that he was not responsible for the prejudice in Philadelphia. The DeWitt Clinton boys protested that the track teams of New York university, Columbia university, the University of Indiana, and Morris high school of the Bronx all had colored members, and all stayed together at Philadelphia hotels. The coach of the Evander Childs high school in the Bronx is reported to have given his two colored athletes $3 a piece and told them to shift for themselves. The N. A. A. C. P. letter to the board of education protested against this treatment and points out that Pennsylvania has a civil rights law which has recently been upheld with respect to hotel accommodations. It points out, also, that the board should issue instructions to coaches to provide adequate housing for all members of the team without discrimination as to color.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., May 13.—(ANP)—A new $50,000 gymnasium built with federal funds, will be dedicated here May 19 at the John S. Cobb school with Robert S. Cobb, son of the late educator for whom the school is named, present to deliver the dedicatory address.

Mr. Cobb, formerly executive secretary of the Missouri Negro Industrial commission and assistant compensation commissioner, is now a practicing attorney at Jefferson City, Mo.

Second Place Winner in National Badminton Tourney

With only six months of badminton playing, Mary Lou Ford, of the Wabash Avenue Y. M. C. A., Chicago, has won three medals. Third place in the Chicago Y. M. C. A. Badminton Tournament, she won the Illinois Y. M. C. A. badminton championship, and was second-place winner in the National Badminton Tournament, held in connection with the international Y Championships and Physical Education Congress held in Detroit, Michigan, April 27 to 30. This was the first time that women have ever been invited to participate in a National Y. M. C. A. meet and Mrs. Ford was the only Negro entrant in the Badminton Tournament. She was accompanied by her competent coach who is also her husband, Joseph Ford, badminton instructor at Wabash Y. M. C. A. Badminton is a game played similarly to tennis, using a racquet and a bird or shuttlecock made of cork and feathers. It is regarded as the fastest racket game known and is increasing in popularity among both young and old. (ANP)

Stop Needless Destruction

The American people are continuing to needlessly destroy property, investments, jobs and opportunities, with fire. The total estimate direct fire loss for the first three months of this year was in excess of $83,000,000. If indirect loss is added, the real total is several hundred millions for this 90-day period—indirect loss is by far the greater part of fire waste. What this waste means to the country should be understood by everyone. It means that factories are being destroyed—thus throwing people out of productive employment and reducing purchasing power. It means that tax-paying property is being taken off the tax-rolls by fire—thus increasing the burden that must be borne by all other tax-paying property. It means that thousands of human beings are being cremated alive annually—because we are careless, thoughtless and ignorant when it comes to controlling fire.

PICKET 'PHONE CO. IN HARLEM JOB CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, May 13.—(Carl Carter for CNA)—Fresh from an unprecedented victory over the powerful Consolidated Edison Gas and Electric Company, 500 Negro pickets under the banner of the Co-ordinating Committee for Employment marched on May 1 upon the Harlem office of the New York Telephone Company at 126th St. and Lenox avenue, demanding that the company end its practice of job discrimination and give employment to Negroes. White workers and progressives participated in the action. Following the march in Harlem, the demonstrators joined forces with the United May Day paraders in Union Square. The job demonstration which started from 138th street and Seventh avenue was headed by the Rev. A. Clayton Powell, Jr., chairman of the Greater New York Co-ordinating Committee for Employment. Audley Moore, Harlem Communist woman leader, and Fred Washington, noted actress, led the picket line in front of the telephone company. Under pressure of an ultimatum to give jobs to Negroes or be faced with a barrage of picket lines and a consumers boycott, the Consolidated Edison Company last week agreed to hire Negroes as cashiers and service men. The Committee for Employment is supported by 206 organizations with a total membership of 155,000 persons, Negro and white. The National Negro Congress is a co-sponsor of the committee and A. Philip Randolph, president of the Negro Congress is vice chairman.

How well you look Depends so much on taking care of your health

FOR a woman to look well, to enjoy the work she has undertaken to do and to carry her favorite activities among her friends, she must first feel WELL. Her body must be kept properly nourished and she must be free from severe nerve-wrecking pains. For younger women especially, employment of any kind turns to dreadful toil when health begins to run down. Behind that tired look—back of that giving up of so many things she used to enjoy—may be monthly suffering that pulls down her strength and darkens her view of life. Often because of a run-down system from poor nourishment there is a painful, worrisonous condition every month, depressing the nerves, causing sleeplessness, loss of appetite, and wearing out resistance. This is called "dysmenorrhea." If the pain is not due to any actual defects of the body or improper formation of the organs or to any disease found in the womanly organs, it is called "functional dysmenorrhea." This is the most common type of painful menstruation and is the kind which can be helped by CARDUI. CARDUI aids in relieving the functional pains of menstruation, and it helps to quiet nervousness at such times. It is therefore a medicine which helps women to take better care of their health. CARDUI has been helping women in this way for over fifty years and thousands of them have told of its great benefit in their cases. It is a tried and tested medicine, widely and favorably known. If you need a bitter tonic to help you to obtain more energy and strength from the food you eat, or a pure vegetable medicine to ease functional pains of menstruation, try CARDUI. If not benefited as so many women have described, it may be that your physician should advise special treatment in your case.

Says Louis - Schmeling Bout 'Powderhouse'

German Feeling

Intense, Says Race Will Show Sportsmanship

BOSTON, May 13. (By Mabe Kountze for ANP) — Here and abroad, a tense feeling is reported being centered about the coming world's heavyweight boxing championship match scheduled for this summer between Max Schmeling of Germany and Champion Joe Louis of the United States.

Bill Cunningham, nationally famous newspaper and radio sports commentator, recently deplored the present condition with his usual fairminded judgment in the Boston Post. Hammering the increasing policy to make sports a vehicle of political propaganda, Cunningham said that the coming boxing contest should merely be a sports venture concerning the two fighters in a straight commercial proposition.

"Actually," continued the Post feature writer, "it is loaded with dynamite from the first round to the last, and it won't surprise me in the least to see more killings follow in its wake, especially if Louis loses, than followed the notorious Jefferson-Johnson affair back there in 1911."

Cunningham is of the opinion that such reaction is not fair to Schmeling, whom he considers a clean, upstanding athlete. "But," he reminds the reader, "the Germans whipped to fever heat by their current sense of power, have made Schmeling their symbol of physical omnipotence... when he sails for the Louis match, German frenzy will sail with him."

Here's hoping Cunningham is wrong. Bill gave the Negro press and this writer a nice spread in the Post following our calm and peaceful attitude in a journalistic sense, following the Braddock-Louis title contest last summer. He also republished my prediction that Schmeling and Louis would meet again under the same tense international feeling that is evident today. At that time, we felt somewhat honored, but today we don't like the signs after seeing the predictions come true.

Gentlemen, this is no make-believe pipe dream. There are, according to report, 250,000 German Nazi drilled Aryan race supremacy advocates in this country. Not long ago at New York, a group of these Nazi followers beat up a group representing our own American Legion, and got away with it. At New York, we have the scene of the championship fight — and we also have Harlem's army of Hametic fight fans who won't tolerate any foolishness from the Nazi element. The feeling is going to be strained any way you want to look at it. Mr. Hitler will be waiting the results as will all Germany. As I recall Cunningham's comment last year, he thought that Hitler would not allow Schmeling to risk being defeated by a colored man unless, of course, Schmeling had the victory all tied up in his favor.

Now, the fact that Hitler has allowed Max to meet Joe with the chance of receiving a stunning kayo of Nazi race supremacy should Joe win, all places the champion on the spot. I believe he will defeat Schmeling and become the hero of all American sports fans. But should he pass the title over to the German, I really hate to even imagine the result. I sincerely hope that the contest will be fought on its true merits, and that the sports public here and abroad will view it on the same basis. The colored press and colored sports public showed the way to the world last summer. I believe we will do our part once again, with decent encouragement.

FIGHT GETS HOT
BROTHER LENDS
A HELPING HAND

BATON ROUGE, La., May 13. (By Richard H. Thomas for ANP) — Jackie Elverillo, recognized as welterweight champion of the South, gave a decision over Johnny Jackson, local pugilist, in the eighth round after Jackson's brother leaped into the ring, caught Elverillo around the neck and threw him to the floor.

Elverillo and Jackson had fought a "nip and tuck" battle up to the seventh round. During this period Elverillo cut Jackson's eye. Henry Jackson, seeing blood coming from his brother's eye, made an attempt to get into the ring but was unsuccessful. In the eighth, when both fighters were exchanging punches rapidly, Henry climbed into the ring, caught Elverillo from the back and threw him to the floor. Boxing commissioners disqualified Jackson on the grounds that his brother, who was a second, interfered with his brother's opponent. City police rushed Henry Jackson out of the arena. It is reported that he was jailed. Dissatisfaction among the spectators was high because of the clean and sportsmanlike qualities of both fighters.

ABILITY MAKES PLACE

On Tennis Team for Youth

YOUNGSTOWN, May 13. (By Simeon S. Booker for ANP) — Jimmie Smith, stellar athlete on Youngstown college's cage team last season, is the first Negro to ever occupy a berth on the school's tennis team. Smith turned that trick just a few weeks ago.

Last week, the star playing with a white boy, Syllak, lost to a Mount Union college doubles team but although he was on the losing side, Smith ascended the squad's ranking ladder through his sensational play.

Constantly ribbing the oafs as being afraid to mix their tennis wares with him, Smith finally enticed a white member of the team to the courts. In the ensuing match, Smith won 6-0, 6-0 in two successive sets and thus earned the oaf's place on the team. The team members gasped and hastily made plans to secure the Negro's downfall.

In the ladder system, a man on the team which consists of 8 men is challenged by some other person on the team or squad who is in quest of higher laurels. Smith was challenged in the frame-up conceived by the team members but refused to play anyone rated below him. His reasons were "I'm seeking the next man above me and haven't time to accept the challenge." The white boys were powerless to shoo him off the team.

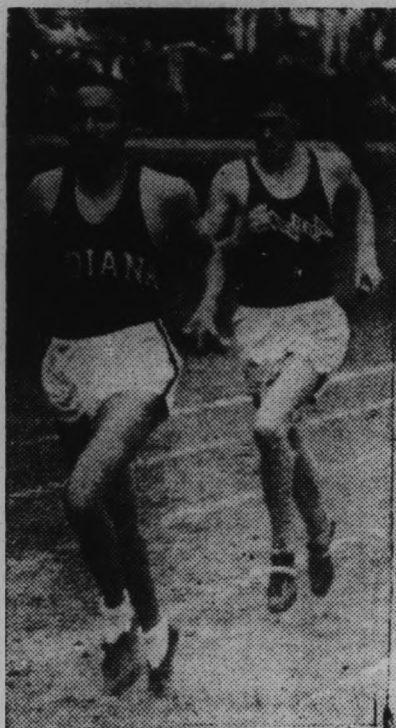

Smith gained the finals of a local tourney here a few years ago and is considered by many critics as a consistent racket wielder. The college boys might think the same thing before long.

"I'll Be Stronger,
Hitting Harder Than Ever", Says Armstrong

NEW YORK, May 13. (ANP) — Homicide Henry Armstrong arrived here Tuesday to start training for his welterweight title fight with Barney Ross on May 26, and carried a total of 142 pounds, six more than he plans to have when he enters the Madison Square Garden bowl. Barney is expected to scale around 142.

Armstrong does not believe this extra weight will hurt him. "It'll probably make me faster," he said. "No drying out or anything like that to weaken me. I'll be stronger than ever and hitting harder than ever."

The featherweight titlist said he "felt fine" and declared "the rest was just what I needed. My hands are in fine shape again. I'm eager to get back into the ring. And I've put on enough poundage so that Ross won't have much of a weight advantage over me."

Asked whether he felt his new poundage would prevent his fighting again in defense of his featherweight crown, Armstrong answered,

"Later on I might accept a featherweight title match, with the provision that if I couldn't make 126 pounds we would fight on catch weights and I would give up the title. I might try to come down to 126, but if I found the weight-making was weakening me, I'd stop paring down immediately."

NEW YORK, May 13. (ANP) — A 500,000-word history on Negro boxers dating from the late 18th century and ending with Joe Louis has just been completed by Nat Fleisher, white, editor of the Ring magazine, who got the idea from a column by Damon Runyon, first colored pugilist to appear in London fight clubs. Publication will await the outcome of the Louis-Schmeling bout in June. If the champion retains his title, Fleisher may write a separate history about Joe.

Coach Clair Bee received and accepted the invitation to play and hopes to take to the island the same team which brought fame to the Long Island Institute last fall, including the colored star, Dolly King. NOTRE DAME, Ind., May 13. (ANP) — Although Charles Walker and Dave Albritton turned in good performances for Ohio State, Notre Dame was victorious by 8 1/2 to 4 1/2 in a dual track meet here Saturday.

Albritton won the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.1 seconds, the high jump at 6 feet 3 3/4 inches, and took third in the broad jump. Walker tied for second in the high jump, and was second in the broad jump.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 13. (ANP) — With Bill Watson winning two firsts, a second and a third and Teammate Allen annexing high jump honors, Michigan kept its track record clear by defeating Illinois 87 2-3 to 43 1-3, before 3,000 here Saturday.

Watson won the shot-put at 49 feet 3 3/4 inches and the discus at 152 feet 8 1/2 inches, which broke by more than two feet the dual meet record established in 1932. He was second in the broad jump, won at 23 feet 9 1/2 inches. Allen won the high jump at 6 feet 4, and Watson placed third in the event.

MAX POSITIVE
JOE'S HIS MEAT

BERLIN, May 13. (ANP) — Max Schmeling is absolutely positive he can whip Champion Joe Louis and thereby become the first heavyweight in history to regain the title when they fight in New York next month.

The German, who was exceedingly impressive when he knocked out Steve Dudas last month in the last of his tune-up bouts, said:

"I believe I can lick Joe Louis again, and there are two reasons why I think so."

"In the first place, I'm in the best form of my life. I'm in much better form than I was when I beat him the first time."

"That time I had only one fight in a year. This time I've had a couple of tough ones. I'm full of pep and ginger."

"In the second place you must not forget how it's going to feel for me to climb through the ropes and meet a guy I've beaten before. That sort of thing gives you confidence. Don't forget that when I beat him before Joe was regarded as unbeatable and I was just the 'sure next victim.' That's something you've got to take into consideration."

4 Race Athletes

In Coveted Amateur
Melee at Chicago

CHICAGO, May 13. (ANP) — Four dusky amateur boxers are members of the Chicago Tribune Golden Gloves team now training for the international bouts with Europe's best at the Chicago Stadium on May 18.

These four, gunning for the greatest amateur boxing prize in the world, an international title, have already won championships ranging from sectional to national. Milton Bess was the Indianapolis sectional welterweight king, but has reduced to lightweight status. Booker Beckwith, Gary champion who last February fought as a light-heavyweight, is now a 160-pounder and in the Intercity bouts with New York, won his match as a middleweight.

The other two boxers are from Cleveland. William Muldane, Golden Gloves light-heavyweight runner-up, also won his fight with New York and more recently the National A. A. U. championship. Dan Merritt, heavyweight, is the only colored Chicago Golden Gloves champion, but lost at New York on a questionable decision. He came back, however, to win the National A. A. U. title.

Two others who might have been on the squad are not available. Clayton Johnson, 118 pound runner-up, could not absent himself from his job in Sioux City, Ia., and Jackie Simmons, featherweight runner-up, is about to turn professional in Kansas City, Mo., his home town.

Woodruff Leads Pitt
To Take Meet

EVANSTON, Ill., May 13. (ANP) — Led by Long John Woodruff, who seems headed for his greatest year, Pittsburgh won easily over Purdue, Minnesota, and Northwestern in a quadrangular track meet at Dyche stadium, Saturday. Pitt piled up 6 1/2 points to 41 1-3 for Purdue, second in the meet.

Woodruff was not hard pressed in either the half or the mile run. He traveled the first distance in 1:58.2 and won the mile in 4:29.5. Later on, he came back to anchor the mile relay team which won in 3:29.6. It was the first time the Olympic champion had raced in Chicagoland.

RECORDS FALL.

During West Coast Meet

LOS ANGELES, May 13. (By Harry Levette for ANP) — With colored track stars featuring on both teams, Compton and Pasadena signaled their return to junior college conference competition last Saturday. They placed one-two, in the annual Southern California J. C. meet as four records fell, another was tied, and a national two-year college standard was bettered.

This latter event nearly stole the thunder from Compton's victory for it was Jackie Robinson, of Pasadena, who soared 25 feet 6 1/2 inches to break his brother Mack's accepted broad-jump record.

Mack, representing Pasadena last year, had jumped 25 feet 5 1/2 inches. Jackie, who is very versatile, has starred in four major sports over the past year and had one jump of 24 feet 5 inches before sailing forth on his record-smashing leap.

Records also fell in the 220-yard dash, mile run, and low hurdles, while Mushy Pollock's 100-yard dash mark was equalled when Clyde Jeffery, white Riverside speedster, led Wilbur Miller, Compton's colored flash, in 9.6.

Bryant Allen, Riverside's colored flash, who in advance was doped to be the winner in both sprints, was the hard luck king of the day. He was disqualified for two false starts in the hundred, and suffered a bad muscle cramp at the 180-yard mark in the rurlong dash and fell to the track. He was running third position at the time. Jeffery went on to shade Miller in the longer race in 20.6. This bettered the meet record by one-sixteenth of a second.

MARION ANDERSON SHOWS PLUCK AS MISHAP THREATENS RECITAL; SINGS IN SOUTH BEND

SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 12.—The mission of the impresario, they say, is to bring artistic pleasure not pain to people, and part of the artist's philosophy must believe that the show must go on. Thus though Sol Hurok, Marion Anderson's manager, when two winters ago she arrived for a series of performances with one of the most beautiful voices in the world, and a broken foot.

Miss Anderson, contralto, who will culminate the 1937-38 season of the South Bend Civic Music association when she sings at 8:15 p. m., Tuesday, May 17, in Central High school auditorium, had tripped on a stairway of the ocean liner that brought her back to her native land, and thought she had sustained merely a minor injury. An X-ray showed a fractured bone.

Two days before her opening performance her foot was encased in plaster. There was no pain only utter, unrelenting incapacitation.

"To cancel or not to cancel—that was Mr. Hurok's dilemma. Miss Anderson had been heralded by the greatest transatlantic flow of praise in concert history. Sensation was in the air. The house had been sold out weeks in advance.

Obviously, Miss Anderson could not be carried on the stage in a chair. Crutches were out of the question. The entire American engagement seemed doomed. Then salvation flashed in the harried brain of the manager.

PLENTY OF SINGING, DANCING FEATURES SNAPPY FLOOR SHOW

WPA THEATRE PLANS 2 MORE NEGRO PLAYS

One of the snappiest and poppiest floor shows seen in these parts for many a moon, is Hershel Johnson's Sepia Scandals of 1938 featuring the lovely Bea Moore as mistress of ceremonies, and what a dynamic personality is the femme delineator of song. The aggregation is augmented by Burns Campbell's Swing Kings, currently showing at the Sunset Terrace down Indiana Avenue way. If you enjoy a real lifetime floor show don't fail to visit the Sunset this week-end.

The show is a fast-moving vehicle with a bevy of beauties who really send you with their poppy dance numbers. The revue is tops. The costumes are gorgeous and the acting superb. The young Miss who dishes the comedy is the highlight of the show. Robert Campbell, "Swine On Toss"; Odessa Baker, deluxe songstress; the Brown Bombers, and Windy Hendrickson, hoofers ala Bojangles, bring the house down. There are 13 performers in the show, including the band, and believe you me, it's the hottest "Flesh" ensemble ever witnessed in Naptown's Bronzeville.

More than 44,000 persons have seen "Haiti," the current WPA hit at the Lafayette Theatre in Harlem. Advance bookings through the month of June already total more than 50,000 tickets. Rex Ingram "do Lawd" of "The Green Pastures" portrays the role of Herri Christophe, Black Napoleon of the island empire.

"Haiti" now in its eighth capacity week at the Lafayette, has been a favorite of social clubs and labor organizations. More than 400 theatre parties have been booked by such groups as Sigma Tau Epsilon, Club Comus, Bethune-Cookman, Y. W. C. A., and others. The Y. W. C. A. Club, Flatbush Cultural Club and Adult Educational League all of which have contracted for the entire house.

On The Air

(By SALLYE BELL for ANP)

If it's not one thing, it's another. Last week and the week before, we were discussing ways and means of getting more Negro talent on the radio. This week, we'll talk about getting some off.

I'm sure you'll agree with me when I say the dear lady of our race who is now with Eddie Cantor will have to go or get a new script or something. There are some comedians who are a credit to their professions and to whatever other group or groups they may happen to belong, but the sweepstakes winner who so wittily (?) refers to her ebony color and the shortcomings of her ebony boyfriend gives me gooseflesh. I have personally written to the station, asking them to do something about it, and if you feel the same way, I'm sure they'll be glad to know it. It's not that we don't think she's a good comedienne, it's just that they give her such goofy lines to read, and in my estimation, her script writer is one of those "people we can get along without."

On the other hand, there is so much good talent which we can heartily enjoy and condone. The artist who is attracting the most attention these days is Maxine Sullivan, who last week drew Robert Montgomery, Warren William, Charles Boyer, Pat Patterson, the Jack Oakies, Lewis Milestone, and David Selznick, and twenty other film names to hear her "swing"

NEGRO FILMS MUST TELL TRUTH

PRODUCERS OF NEW MOVIES WILL LOSE AUDIENCE UNLESS THEY FACE FACTS, SAYS WRITER

By Loren Miller

One of the reasons why the Lafayette Players flopped was that Negro theatregoers, at first in trigued, finally tired of seeing Negro actors enact roles in dramas that had no meaning in terms of their own lives. Similarly, the producers of this new flood of talkies cannot continue to cash in on the novelty of presenting Negro actors in roles which Negroes do not play in real life.

Nor is this an argument that Negro actors should portray only Negro characters. There is no reason, except for the limitations of popular prejudice, why Negro actors should not portray Irishmen or Frenchmen as white American actors do. However it is obvious that the producers of these Negro talkies are not ready to tackle that larger problem; tacitly, they are committed to the proposition that Negro life should be depicted to Negro audiences by Negro actors.

Toussant L'Ouverture

Louis Sharp, whose characterizations have included such diverse types as Cain in "The Green Pastures"; Undertaker Crouch and Easy Jones in "The Conjure Man Dies," and Shine in "Turpentine" portrays the role of Toussant L'Ouverture in "Haiti" the WPA Federal Theatre's sensational drama in its ninth capacity week at the popular Harlem playhouse.

TO CONSOLIDATE NEGRO SCHOOLS

LILLINGTON, N. C., May 13.—(ANP)—In order to save money for both the county and state, the Harnett county board of education has voted to consolidate two schools in the western part of the county next year, and may also consolidate two others before the fall term begins.

GOSSIP OF THE MOVIE LOT

HOLLYWOOD, May 12. (By Harry Levette for ANP)—Say, fellow Gossipers, mitt me, shake hands across the Rockies, for Yours Truly, who has been doing his best to keep you posted on the doings for the magic cinema city for 10 these 12 long years, has received a highly valued document. It is a printed list from the headquarters of the preview poll conducted monthly by the Hollywood Daily Reporter, containing nearly 200 names of recognized previewers. And your Gossipers is high up on the tabulation. Since all the other active members are white, it means no little recognition to our Associated Negro Press.

The title in black letters at the head of an important-looking paper reads: "Here is a complete list of accredited Hollywood previewers eligible to vote in the Hollywood Reporter's preview poll for monthly screen achievements." Hence, we all cast a ballot on the pictures we have previewed at the studios during the month and which have not yet been released.

DOUGLAS CASINO SKATING RINK ADDS SWING BAND

Douglas Casino Skating Rink has added to its regular skate entertainment, with that young, singing, strutting Louise Winston as M. C. This new role is particularly fitting for Miss Winston and gives her plenty of opportunity to execute her showmanship.

Maurice Winston, the other half of this, delightful set of twins has been taking private lessons for the past six months on the trap drums. Never before did we think a big bass drum could do tricks—but the ringle foot work of this former tap dancer is a Bill Robinson in action.

Wade Henson, a well-known socialite of this city, a man with many years' experience as band leader and musician, handles the piano in that characteristic style of his own. Other musicians are Miss Dorothy Mahone, trombone; James Ferguson, violin and sax; Bill Miller and Bill Dullen trumpet.

The swing rhythm brings out the finer arts of the better skaters. The waltz and two-step on skates are becoming more popular. Glen Cuthrell is the latest addition to the racing team and now holds second place in the eliminations. The challenge to a neighboring rink has been accepted for a two-mile race on May 30.

YMCA Band Now in Rehearsal For City-Wide Summer Program

(By LEONARD WHITLEY)

The Y. M. C. A. band, which is considered one of the best in the city, among white and colored, is now rehearsing its summer program of popular music, and selections. We have a number of engagements to be played in the city parks this summer and also a number of out-of-town engagements.

Thanks to Mr. McLaughlin, our business manager, who is a live wire when it comes to getting the business, and under the careful direction of Mr. Brown, we will be able to give the public just what they like in the line of music.

Mr. Gibson is doing wonderful work for the band in training young musicians, he now has about fifteen under him and they are working hard to make good in the music world. We have also taken several in as members of the Y. M. C. A. band. Thanks to Mr. Gibson, our assistant director, for his good work.

We, again, ask the young musicians of the city to come out and see what the band is doing.

Mr. Horace Mansfield, Mr. Marshall, and Mrs. Oscar Burch, who are members of the Y. Band, have joined Al G. Barnes Shows in Los Angeles, Calif., and are playing the West Coast and Canada. They will be gone all summer. These boys are holding up the name of Naptown as having good musicians.

M. L. WANTS A REAL HE-MAN!

Dear Tillie:

I am a new reader of your column. 24 years old, weigh 125 lb. 5' 10" tall, black hair and eyes and wear 5-12 shoe. I don't consider myself one of the best looking guys in town, but I seem to always attract attention. Men have said that there is something about me that draws them, but try as I may, I just can't see what it is. Oh, well, we girls don't ever see ourselves as men see us.

The man I want must be brown-skinned, six feet or more, between 25-30 years old, one who appreciates refined girls and who likes chaste refined girls and who likes dancing, hiking, horseback riding and a movie sometime. It doesn't matter whether he drinks or not, just so he isn't a drunkard and hasn't gambled if he likes. He can even go to church when he feels like it, just so he's a real He Man! One that I can admire for his masculinity, good or bad. So, here's hoping to hear from you and you and you!

Sincerely, M. L.

HAD A PAL FOR YEAR: FAIRNESS WANTS TO TRY AGAIN

Dear Tillie:

I have enjoyed your column very much. I have had for the past two years, a very good pal that I met through your column. Now I have lost him, so I am writing you again, as I am very lonesome. I am 34, weigh 135, dark brown skin, with good hair; don't drink, smoke and don't care for night life at all, except a good show. I am an active member of a church and attend regular. I have been married but now divorced.

I would like very much to have a pal who is intelligent of high standards. I am a good home lover and will be fair with one who is fair with me. I can be satisfied with one real pal, if he's good and kind. It is my desire to accomplish something worthwhile in life, if I can find the right one. I answer all letters promptly. Respectfully yours,

FAIRNESS.

GOOD NATURED WANTS TO MEET TRUTHFUL AND HONEST

Dear Tillie:

A want to hear from the young lady who calls herself, Truthful and Honest. I am five feet, light brown skin, and have a planned career, but I need some one for inspiration. Now, if Truthful and Honest is sincere in her desire, she will seek the identity of the writer of this letter.

Sincerely,

GOOD NATURED.

TO THE READERS

Dear Readers:

I am indeed very pleased to receive letters from all of you, but I must admit that some of you don't read the instructions properly or else you forget, that unless you send postage or addressed envelopes, your letters will be absolutely disregarded. A number of men have written for the names and addresses of your ladies, and I have my opinion about those who don't even take time or have interest in their desires and ambitions of finding a decent pen pal, when they don't send stamps. Again may I urge you, if you want quick service and satisfactory results, you must send postage.

Also, please enclose your full name and address as a number of letters have been returned to me where persons names were not disclosed and I used the fictitious names which have been enclosed in the letters. The anonymous names are all right, and I am always glad to use them, but also enclose your full name and address or all letters will be disregarded. Hoping you will abide by these rules, so that you may successfully and happily contact all persons in whom you find interest.

Sincerely,

"TILLIE".

You'll admit that she hasn't much of a voice, but she tricks the star making qualities of phonograph records which are an important adjunct to show business and through the sale of which she first became known.

Did you know that the 9-year-old youngster George Jessel has been featured on his show is (surprisingly) a copper-colored Filipino who very capably handles the most difficult operatic arias and never falters, hitting the high notes with perfection? Just to show her versatility, she takes a fling at the piano and tickles of a classic with the ease of an adult professional. She would seem most likely to be a star in the future, especially on the radio concert stage, though her sepia complexion may be a handicap as far as the silver screen is concerned. Next time hear little Miss Josephine Starr, be sure to write in and give your reaction, won't you?

HAVE YOU HEARD... The Three Vagabonds, musical lads

heard over NBC in Middle West territory over WREN? They've made quite a reputation for themselves since starting out in St. Louis a few years ago. . . . Ernest Whiteman and Gee Gee James who won seventh place among radio's leading comic personalities on NEC? Miss James is currently cast as maid in "Hilltop House," five times weekly on CBS, and not only acts with the best, but sings equally as well. . . . Etta Moten, well-remembered star on "Flying Down to Rio," singing the "Carolina" last Wednesday? She's currently heard on "Cabin at the Crossroads" over NBC Red and Blue networks. . . . That Bill Robinson and Shirley Temple may make personal appearances together at Radio City, with Robinson doing the dance routine and Shirley supplying vocalizing? . . . The "Wings Over Jordan" program, which will feature Rev. Richardson of Tuskegee Institute on May 15? It's heard Sunday morning from 9:30 to 10:00 a. m., E. S. T. . . . That Artie Shaw has no intention of letting Billie Holiday go? He says rumors of her exit are untrue; he wants another girl with his band just so he'll have alternates. . . . Benny Goodman (with his septa musicians) is expected to break all records at the New England ballroom, the auditorium, Worcester, Mass., where he opened last week? . . . The Four Ink Spots have left Levaggi's in Boston and gone to New York? . . . Chick Webb's first band to be set for two weeks at the Apollo theatre, N. Y., where he opens on May 15 after leaving Boston? He will be at Chicago's Oriental on June 17 then the Hipp, Baltimore. . . . Negro Films Must Tell Truth and since that is their job they must be judged by their work in that field.

They won't do that job well until they realize that criticism directed against Hollywood for its treatment of Negro actors is basically a criticism of Hollywood's distortion of Negro life. And gangster melodramas or goosy success stories, using Negro actors, distort reality just as surely as did "Imitation of Life."

What is required for the job is the simple honesty necessary to turn the camera around and focus it in such a manner that it will catch the phases of our lives deliberately neglected and distorted by Hollywood for cash-and-carry considerations. That is no easy task.

The Negro's place on stage and screen has been fixed for so many years that the tradition sways the judgement of Negroes themselves and honest whites. The fear that propaganda may creep in and spoil the entertainment value of the films also bulks large and, I fear, is militating against good intentions in selection of themes.

The truth is that every time any Negro steps outside the black belt of his home town to buy a hot dog, select a school for his child, ride a train, look for a job or get married, divorced or buried, he runs into problems arising out of his Jim Crow status in society.

The conflicts that arise out of the Negro's necessary attempts to cope with these problems provide the richest mine of dramatic material available and the producer who forgoes dealing with such situations out of fear of making propaganda films in downing himself to them and he has to indicate in his pictures whether he believes existing racial relations are justifiable or unjustifiable. The dilemma impels him to take a "propagandistic" stand either one way or another.

There is no denying the fact that the producers of these new all Negro pictures are faced with grave problems. The ventures are purely commercial and available capital is still limited. All of the films thus far produced, with the possible exception of the Louis film, are of the cheap variety that Hollywood calls "quickies." There is the possibility that if the ventures prove successful in a financial way larger studios may step in and exploit the idea, a not un-mixed blessing. There would be more money for the making of adequate films but those studios would bring with them an even larger should not we be willing to spend a few thousand dollars in an honest effort to protect our legal, civil, and seniority rights? If we are real men, we will do it without argument."

ST. LOUIS ELKS $35,000 HOME

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 13. (ANP) Greater St. Louis Lodge, No. 1012, I. B. P. O. E. of W., will dedicate and occupy its new $35,000 home, located at 211-13-15 North Cardinal avenue, during the week of May 14 to 21 with Grand Exalted Ruler J. Finley Wilson presiding at the opening ceremonies. The home is an impressive three-story red brick building and has a spacious garden attached. Two rooms on the street floor have been extensively decorated and are furnished with ultra-modernistic fixtures, leather chrome booths and indirect lighting effects. These will be used as rest and lounge rooms for brother and daughter Elks, their friends and guests. The lower floor contains, besides a kitchen, a large room equipped for recreation. The two upper floors are large halls and will be used for lodge business as well as banquets, dances and other social functions.

The program for the week will include several parades, sacred ceremonies, banquets, dances, and visiting dignitaries from all over the country. All brother Elks lodges have been invited to participate and two days have been assigned to the lodge's affiliated temples.

Lodge officers are as follows: A. Oliver Thornton, exalted ruler; Arch Hughes, esteemed leading knight; Ernest Cooper, esteemed loyal knight; George Clark, esteemed lecturing knight; Frank B. Wilson, financial secretary; Herbert C. Duckett, treasurer; John Scott, esquire; Lafayette Winston, innerguard; Louis Jones, tiler; Charles Harris, recording secretary; David M. Grant, chairman, board of trustees; A. Maceo May, secretary, board of trustees; David B. Flowers, trustee, and John Brown, trustee.

Past Exalted Ruler Frank Hunter is a member of the lodge as well as District Deputy Dr. G. B. Key.

our new movie makers or whether or not they have either the vision or the desire to focus their cameras in the proper manner. The start has been none too propitious. They are leaning too heavily on exploiting the thrill that comes to the average fan when he sees the Negro actor from the screen with his hat on his head instead of in his hand and far too little on the artistic merit of their productions. The pictures are showing gratifying technical improvement, but announcements of future films include almost nothing to indicate that producers are ready or planning to accept the social responsibility that became their when they went into the business of making pictures. Crass commercialism is far too evident.

The final decision as to the future of these films rest with the Negro movie fan. It is imperative that he be on the alert. If he is ill-advised and content with cheap films just because they feature Negro actors, that is what he will get. If he registers a desire for worthwhile films at the box office, either the present group of producers or another, attuned to his desires, will produce pictures that will fulfill the real function of any art: help him understand the world in which he lives and cope with the problems inherent in living in that world.

Among the features to be decided upon, besides best pictures, are "best performance by an actor and actress, best direction, best story adaptation, best performance by a supporting actor and actress," etc. Votes are counted and the awards made accordingly.

And now I am going to ask you a favor, which will help us all in the long run. Drop a card to Hollywood Reporter, 6717 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, Calif., thanking them for having shown recognition to a writer of your race, and the Associated Negro Press that has done so much for that race. I am sure they will be glad to hear from you and will appreciate it. Besides, they will admire your race pride and I feel sure they will mention your names in the next issue. It will also help them to realize what a large and important group Negro movie fans are in this country. And now for the news.

MILDRED BOYD, beautiful three time winner of local beauty contests, was selected for a bit in a new unnamed film at Universal studio last Wednesday. The feature is under the direction of the famous John Stahl, who will be remembered as the director of the now historical "Imitation of Life." Mildred, an excellent dancer, has been seen in most of the film musicals made in Hollywood, including "The Garden of Allah."
